Todgers

If you start in to read this, make up your mind to read it through to the finish.

This is the time to buy the lot for your future home if you ever expect to have one.

And here are the reasons why:

FIRST—All street work for many years to come will cost more money than before the war.

At present, sidewalks, sewer and water pipes, gutters, curbs, etc., cost nearly twice as much as in 1915.

Labor is much more expensive and not as efficient.

Future subdivisions will have to sell from $2000 to $5000 more per acre to overcome the new costs of development.

(Chevrolet Park was 90% improved at pre-war prices.)

SECOND — History proves that tremendous advances in realty values always follow high prices of other commodities.

Real estate is always the last commodity to go up and the last to come down.

Past history, present high prices of commodities, today's high wages, all foretell and forecast new and higher real estate prices.

(Lots in Chevrolet Park should advance 50% in value within 18 months.)

* THIRD—The day that lumber comes down in cost (and it is bound to come) a building boom will hit Oakland such as we've never known before.

Our present serious shortage of houses proves that.

When house building on a really big scale starts, you'll see such lots as we sell in Chevrolet Park for $590 selling for $900 or $1000.

FOURTH—We are going to build a car line into Chevrolet Park immediately. It will come right up to 62nd Ave. and Trenor Streets (center of tract). The day the first car runs to this property, lots will cost you from $150 to $300 more than you can buy them for next Sunday.

FIFTH—Real estate is one of the few fixed commodities in the world. No more land can ever be manufactured. Its value largely depends upon population. If population increases and transportation improves around a tract, all lots increase in value proportionately.

Chevrolet Park's future possibilities from the standpoint of population are tremendous. It will unquestionably be the fastest growing subdivision as far as population is concerned that Oakland has ever known.

Mills College, destined to become one of the world's greatest girls' colleges, is within 100 feet of Chevrolet Park; the great new automobile factory center is within 10 minutes' walk. Chevrolet Park is within 8 minutes' walk of the San Francisco trains.

SIXTH—Every day you put off buying your lot means the selection of a poorer or smaller lot.

paying more or going further out, and into possibly a less desirable neighborhood.

This lot buying business is not a matter to put off any longer.

We are entering an advancing market and every hour realty values are going up.

Your opportunity is now.

Our opening of Chevrolet Park next Sunday is an important matter to every adult in Alameda county.

It marks an epoch in this community. It is the last chance to get a fine lot at "before-war prices."

Therefore we ask you to read each of our announcements carefully during this week.

They will be worthy of your interest.

BUDGETS ARE DISCUSSED BY GOVERNORS

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 19.—Problems affecting state governments were to be thoroughly threshed out today at the opening business session of the annual Governors' Conference, which convened here last night. Chief executives from all western states and many eastern and middle-western commonwealths, were in attendance. Questions to be discussed at today's session included the state budget system, and the growth and consolidation of administrative boards of the different states. Entertainment features included bathing and dancing at the Saltair bathing resort on Great Salt Lake and an informal dinner tendered by Governor Simon Bamberger of Utah. More than twenty state executives were in attendance at the opening of the conference last night, at which addresses of welcome and response were made, followed by an informal public reception. The business meetings are being held in the assembly room of the house of representatives at the state capital. The Oakland lodge is fortunate in securing Monksy for this evening, as he is one of the most prominent members east of the Rockies and is making a tour of the Western states. The class initiations are to be continued at this meeting and ten new members are to be initiated. Morris N. Schneider, chairman of the entertainment committee, has promised something unusual in light refreshments.

Monksy Will Tell Why He Is a "B.B."
"Why I am a B.Nai Brith" will be the subject of the address by Henry Monksy of Omaha, grand vice-president of District No. 6, at the meeting of the B.Nai Brith this evening. The Oakland lodge is fortunate in securing Monksy for this evening, as he is one of the most prominent members east of the Rockies and is making a tour of the Western states. The class initiations are to be continued at this meeting and ten new members are to be initiated. Morris N. Schneider, chairman of the entertainment committee, has promised something unusual in light refreshments.

GROUNDING VESSEL IS NOT IN DANGER

Though two of its holds were full of water, the United States Shipping Board steamer Heffron, built by the Bethlehem Shipbuilding corporation here last year, was in no danger when it went ashore off the Rokuten Korea straits, while on its way from Vladivostok to Trieste, according to advices received by the Pacific for Vladivostok.

Steamship company from its agents at Kobe. The Heffron with 1100 wounded Czechoslovak soldiers aboard was sailing along the Japanese coast when it met with the mishap. A warship and a salvage vessel are standing by. The Heffron is of 12,000 tons deadweight. When launched December 31 last she was intended for a freighter. Later, following an agreement made by this government, the steamer was changed into a troop ship to carry wounded Czechoslovak soldiers from Vladivostok to Europe. Under the command of Captain Charles Greene the transport sailed from Seattle June 1, and from Puget Sound July 22 with 1100 soldiers.

REDWOOD PILLARS, OPERA SETTING

CALIFORNIA REDWOOD PARK, Cal., Aug. 19.—In the forest primeval, beneath supervirgins towering three hundred feet and which were ancient forest monarchs even at the time of Noah's Ark is recorded to have rosted on Mount Ararat, 2345 B. C., Californians and visitors will gather here September 6 to witness "The Soul of Sequoia." It is an Indian opera, and its premiere here will mark the first time in the history of open air drama that a complete Indian opera has been produced in the natural redwood forest. Unique features in a setting of grandeur surround this effect of a California composer, Thomas Vincent Cator of San Jose, and a California author, Don W. Richards, to produce a history of the giant redwood trees in song and drama. Their efforts are supported by the Sequoia Club of California which is financing the production solely in the interests of the California Redwood Park, a state park, with free camp sites, fireplaces, and a fine view of the forest. In the heart of the great Big Basin, Santa Cruz county, a majestic amphitheater, is an inner amphitheater in which the production will be staged. Wild deer will be participants in the drama. A. M. Weaver, assistant state warden of the park, has trained these timid animals for more than two years. Warden Weaver has each morning and evening called to the wild deer who have answered from miles around and sped to his offerings of corn, apples and barley. Mammoth pillars of living redwood, five thousand years and more of age form the encircling background to the natural stage upon which this drama is to be produced. This natural forest theater accommodates more than five thousand people. California Redwood Park, set apart by the State in 1901 as a public park, consists of ten thousand acres of virgin forest. It is thirty-three miles from San Jose, seventy miles from San Francisco, two and six miles from Santa Cruz, reached by good mountain roads.

U.S. SENATORS QUIZ PRESIDENT WILSON

PRESIDENT SAYS TREATY MUST BE SIGNED TO BRING BACK NORMAL CONDITION

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 19.—The text of the President's formal statement to the senate committee, in which he urged the immediate acceptance of the treaty of peace, follows:

Mr. Chairman: I am sincerely glad that the committee should have responded in this way to my information that I would like to be of service to it. I welcome the opportunity for a frank and full interchange of views.

I hope, too, that this conference will serve to expedite your consideration of the treaty of peace. I beg that you will pardon me for indulging me if I again urge, that practically the whole task of bringing the country back to normal conditions of life and industry waits on the decision of the Senate with regard to the terms of peace.

I venture thus again to urge my advice that the action of the Senate with regard to the treaty be taken at the earliest practicable moment, because the problems with which we are faced to face in the readjustment of our national life are of the most pressing and urgent character. They require for their proper solution the most intimate and disinterested co-operation of all parties and all interests and cannot be postponed without manifest peril to our people and to all the national advantages we hold most dear.

BIG EXPENSE TO KEEP COPPER MINES OPEN

May I mention a few of the matters which cannot be handled with intelligence until the country knows the character of the peace it is to have? I do so only by a very few examples. The copper mines of Montana, Arizona and Alaska, for example, are being kept open and in operation only at a great cost and loss, in part upon borrowed money, the zinc mines of Missouri, Tennessee and Wisconsin are being operated at about one-half their capacity; the lead of Idaho, Illinois and Missouri reaches only a portion of its former market; there is an immediate need for cotton baling, and also for lubricating oils which cannot be met—albeit because the channels of trade are barred by war when there is no war.

The same is true of raw cotton, of which the central empire alone formerly purchased nearly four million bales. And there are only examples. There is hardly a single raw material, a single important foodstuff, or a single class of manufactured goods which is not in the same case, our full normal profitable production vanishes.

MILITARY PLANS WAIT UPON IT

Our military plans, of course, wait upon it. We cannot interfere with the military how large a naval or military force we shall maintain or what our policy with regard to military training is to be. If we have peace, not only will we know how much we can sustain, whether by the arms of single nations or by the concert of all the great peoples. And there is more than that difficult involved. The vast surplus properties of the army include, not food and clothing merely, whose sale will affect normal production, but great manufacturing establishments, also, which should be restored to their uses, great stores of machine tools and all sorts of merchandise which must lie idle until peace and military matters are definitely determined.

By the same token there can be no properly studied national budget until then.

The nations that ratify the treaty, such as Great Britain, Belgium and France, will be in a position to lay their plans for controlling the markets of Central Europe without competition from us, if we do not presently act. We have no consular agents, no trade representatives there to look after our interests.

LARGE AREAS IN EUROPE AFFECTED

There are large areas of Europe national. Absolutely nothing is concealed in the phrase. PROVISION COVERING DOMESTIC QUESTIONS. With regard to domestic questions, Article XVI of the covenant expressly provides that, in case of any dispute arising between members of the league the matter involved is to be referred to the parties "and is found by the council to rise out of a matter which by international law is solely within the domestic jurisdiction of that party, the council shall so report, and shall make no recommendations as to its settlement."

The United States was by no means the only government interested in the explicit of this provision and there is no doubt in the mind of any authoritative student of international law that such matters as migration, tariffs and naturalization are incontestably domestic questions with which no international body could deal without exceeding its jurisdiction. No enumeration of domestic questions was undertaken, because to undertake it, even by sample, would have involved the danger of excluding to exclude those not mentioned.

The right of any sovereign state to withdraw had been taken for granted, but no objection was made to making it explicit. Indeed, some of the views expressed at the White House conference were laid before the commission, it was at once conceded that it was not entirely clear that it was so important a question to inference. No proposal was made to set up any tribunal to pass judgment on the question of withdrawal, but the commission in fact fulfilled "all its international obligations and all its obligations under the covenant."

HAS NO FEAR U. S. WILL WITHDRAW

It was recognized that that question must be left to be resolved by the conscience of the nation proposing to withdraw; and I must say that it did not seem to me worth while to propose that the article be made more explicit because I knew that the United States would never itself propose to withdraw from the league if its conscience was not entirely clear as to the fulfillment of all its international obligations. It has never failed to fulfill them and never will.

Article X is in no respect of doubtful meaning when read in the light of the covenant as a whole. The council of the league can only "advise upon" the means by which the obligations of the covenant are to be given effect. Unless the United States is a party to the policy or action in question, her own affirmative vote in the council is necessary before any action can be given, for a unanimous vote of the council is required. If she is a party the trouble is her's anyhow. And the unanimous vote of the council is only advisory in any case. Each government is free to reject it if it pleases. Nothing could have been made more clearer to the conference than the right of our government to exercise its independent judgment in all matters of peace and war. No attempt was made to question or limit that right.

OBLIGATIONS MORAL, NOT LEGAL.

The United States will, indeed, undertake under Article X to "respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league" and that engagement constitutes a very grave and solemn moral obligation. But it is a moral, not a legal obligation, and leaves our congress absolutely free to put its own interpretation upon it in all cases that call for action. It is binding in conscience only, not in law.

Article X seems to me to constitute the very backbone of the whole covenant. Without it the league would be hardly more than an international debating society. "It has several times been suggested, in public debate and in private conference, that interpretations of the covenant in which the United States accepts the engagements of the covenant should be embodied in the instrument of ratification. There can be no reasonable objection to such interpretations, provided they do not form a part of the formal ratification itself. Most of the suggestions which have been suggested in me embody what amounts to the plain meaning of the instrument itself.

ASSENT OF GERMAN ASSEMBLY REQUIRED.

But if such interpretations should constitute a part of the formal resolution of ratifications, long delays would be the inevitable consequence, inasmuch as all the many governments concerned would have to accept, in effect, the language of the Senate as the language of the treaty before ratification would be complete. The assent of the German assembly at Versailles would have to be obtained, among the rest, and I must frankly say that I could only with the greatest reluctance approach that assembly for permission to ratify the treaty as we understand it and as those who framed it quite certainly understood it.

If the United States were to qualify the document in any way, moreover, I know of the many conferences and debates which accompanied the formulation of the treaty, that our example would immediately be followed in many quarters, in some instances with very serious reservations, and that the meaning and operative force of the treaty would presently be doubted from one end of its clause to the other. I am sure, Mr. Chairman, if I have been entirely unserved and plain spoken in speaking of the great matters we all have so much at heart, if advice is asked, I trust that the critical situation of affairs may serve as my justification. The issues that manifestly hang upon the conclusions of the Senate with regard to peace and upon the time of its action are so grave and so clearly insusceptible of being thrust on one side or postponed that I have felt it necessary to put public interest to make this urgent plea and to make it as simply and as unreservedly as possible.

GIRL'S VIOLIN STOLEN

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—A violin belonging to Miss Lena Moon, a comely of the University of California, was stolen from her locker on the campus yesterday afternoon, being another in the series of petty thefts which have been going on since college opened yesterday. Several minor thefts were reported to the police yesterday. Miss Moon resides at 2622 Elm street.

Lodge Asks for Fullest Details "Smuts" Treaty Plan Adopted

am very glad to tell the committee just what I meant. Some months before the conference assembled a plan for the league of nations had been drawn up by a British committee at the head of which was Mr. Phillimore, I believe, the Mr. Phillimore who was known as the authority on international law.

RECEIVED COPY OF DOCUMENT

A copy of that document was sent to me and I built upon that a redraft. I will not now say whether I thought it was better or not an improvement; but I built on that a draft which was quite different, inasmuch as I put definitions where there had been what seemed indefiniteness in the Phillimore suggestion. Then, between that time and the time of the formation of the commission on the league of nations, I had the advantage of seeing a paper by General Smuts of South Africa, who seemed to me to have done some very clear thinking, particularly with regard to what was to be done with the pieces of the dismembered empire. Before I got to Paris, therefore, I rewrote the document to which I have alluded and you may have noticed that it consists of a series of articles and then supplementary agreements that I embodied the additional ideas that had come to me not entirely from General Smuts's paper, but from other discussions. That is the full story of how the plan which I sent to the committee was built up.

ADMIT SMUTS' PLAN WAS USED

Senator Lodge: Then it is obvious that the General Smuts' plan was used.

The President: Yes.

Senator Lodge: There was a previous draft in addition to the one which you have sent to us. You spoke of a redraft. That was not submitted to the committee.

The President: No; that was privately my own.

Senator Lodge: Was it before our commission?

The President: No, it was not.

The President: A draft of article ten, which Senator Johnson has presented to the committee, was part of the draft which preceded the draft which was sent to you.

Senator Johnson said he had it from the Independent.

The President: I had forgotten it. I recognized it as soon as I read it.

SENATOR JOHNSON—IT WAS THE ORIGINAL PLAN

The President: It was the original form of article ten, yes.

Senator Lodge said he had been able to ask whether article ten in its present form had been in the British plan. If the British definite drafts of these plans of course the committee could not get them.

Asked by Senator Lodge whether he had said that the redraft for a league submitted by Secretary Lansing the President replied:

Yes.

NO SPECIFIC ACTION TAKEN.

Senator Lodge: No specific action was taken upon them.

The President: Not in a formal way.

Senator Lodge then asked whether the United States would receive any part of the German reparations fund.

The President: I left that question open, but I do not feel that I had any final right to decide it. Upon the basis that was set up in the reparations clauses the portion that the United States would receive would be very small at best, and my own judgment was frequently expressed, not as a decision, but as a judgment that we should claim nothing for ourselves in those clauses. I did that because I coveted the moral advantage that that would give us in the councils of the world.

Senator McCumber: Did that mean we would claim nothing for the sinking of the Lusitania?

The President: Oh no. That did not cover questions of that sort at all.

The President added that pre-war claims were not covered by the reparations clause and said the reparations commission would decide the question of American participation in the reparations remained to be decided.

Senator Lodge: By the commission.

The President: By the commission.

Senator Lodge asked if there had been any recommendations by American naval authorities as to whether the United States would have one of the Ladrone, Caroline, or Marshall Islands for naval purposes.

HEARD OF 'YAP'

The President: There was a paper on that subject, senator, which has been published. I only partially remember it, but it was a paper dealing with the general necessities of our naval policy in the Pacific and the necessity of having some base for communication upon those islands was mentioned. I had recommended that the general necessities of our naval policy in the Pacific and the necessity of having some base for communication upon those islands was mentioned. I had recommended that the general necessities of our naval policy in the Pacific and the necessity of having some base for communication upon those islands was mentioned.

Senator Williams: The island of Yap?

The President: I think you are right sir.

REFER TO SECRET TREATY.

Senator Lodge referred to the secret treaty between Great Britain and Japan regarding Shanghai and said that in the correspondence relating to the treaty, it was stated that Great Britain should have the German islands south of the equator and Japan those north of the equator.

Senator Lodge: If it should seem necessary for the safety of communication for this country that we should have cable stations on that secret treaty interface with the President—I think not, sir, in view of the stipulation that I made question of construction by cable convention. That note of the British ambassador "regarding the German islands" was a part national obligations, its covenants to the league.

The President: This is as I understand it. The only restraining influence would be the public opinion of the world.

Senator Borah then asked whether if notice had been given, the right to withdraw would be unconditional.

The President: Well, when the notice is given, it is conditional on the face of the consciousness of the withdrawing nation at the close of the two-year period.

Senator Borah: Precisely, but is it unconditional so far as the legal right or the moral right is concerned?

The President: That is my interpretation.

NO MORAL OBLIGATION.

Senator Borah: There is no moral obligation on the part of the United States to observe any suggestion made by the council.

The President: Oh, no.

Senator Borah: With reference to withdrawing?

The President: There might be a moral obligation if that suggestion had weight, Senator, but there is no other obligation.

Senator Borah: Any moral obligation which the United States would feel would be one arising from its own sense of obligation?

The President: Oh, certainly.

Senator Borah asked whether the suggestion that the council would pass upon such an obligation was erroneous and the President replied:

Yes, certainly.

Senator Borah asked whether the President was expressing the view held by the commission which drafted the league.

The President: I am confident that that was the view. That view was not formulated, you understand, but I am confident that that was the view.

CONTRACT "DEBATABLE."

In reply to Senator McCumber, the President repeated that he felt it would be a mistake to embody interpretations to the league covenant of ratification, saying: "We can interpret only a moral obligation. The legal obligation can be enforced by such machinery as there is to enforce it. We are therefore at liberty to print the sense in which we undertake a moral obligation."

Senator McCumber asked whether the other nations could not accept interpretation by acquiescence.

The President: My experience as a lawyer was not very long, but the experience would teach me that the language of a contract is always part of the debatable matter, and in our discussions in the commission on the league of nations we did not discuss ideas half as much as we discussed phraseology.

Replying to Senator Fall, who suggested that as Germany was not a member of the league of nations, amendments to the resolution of the full committee, the vote was unanimous, with Fall, New Mexico, absent.

Says Britain Policy Is to Help Persia

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Nothing in the nature of a protectorate over Persia is contemplated by the agreement between Great Britain and that country, Cecil B. Harmsworth, under secretary of state for foreign affairs, told the House of Commons today.

The policy of his majesty's government, Harmsworth said, "is to assist Persia to re-establish herself on a sound basis."

FRANCO-U. S. PACT OK'D IN COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The proposed Franco-American treaty is constitutional, the senate judiciary sub-committee decided today.

The committee found nothing in the proposal that conflicts with the war-making powers of Congress.

Senator Walsh, Montana, was ordered to make a favorable report to the full committee. The vote was unanimous, with Fall, New Mexico, absent.

EASTBAY MEN ARE DRAWN FOR FEDERAL JURY

The following Eastbay residents were drawn for service as Federal trial jurors in the venue of fifty, sworn in today by order of Presiding Judge William C. Van Fleet:

W. K. Cole, Oakland Savings Bank, A. C. Baumgartner, manager Hawaiian Pineapple company, 280 Lenox street, and Charles C. Williams 339 Twenty-fourth street, Oakland and H. M. Carlisle, president A. Carlisle and company, 41 Oakdale avenue, Berkeley. Alfred H. Coates, 31 Alvarado street, Berkeley.

Elopers, 16 and 17, Sleep in Park; Jailed
NEW YORK, Aug. 19. — Two "elopers," one in knickerbockers and the other in skirts little longer, were taken into custody in Prospect park, New York, by Policeman McConville.

In Flatbush court they said they were Musette Braks, 17, of 747 Halsey street, and Matthew Boyd, 16, of 433 Prospect place.

"We love each other," the boy explained, "but our parents don't want us to."

Therefore, he continued, they had "eloped," but after getting as far as Prospect park they sat down to rest, fell asleep, and were awakened at dawn by McConville.

LAW CLOSES IN! NEW SENSATION FOLLOWS SOCIETY SHOOTING

Jealousy Guides Hand of Fate in Henry Arthur Jones' "Society Exile," Starring Elsie Ferguson at the Kinema.

Reaching out to crush her happiness the grim force of the law shadows the life of Elsie Ferguson as a young American heiress who, caught in a web of jealousy and deceit, becomes "Society Exile" this week at the Kinema.

Beautiful and talented, she is taken to Europe by a "social climber" aunt, but instead of a brilliant marriage and a secure social position, her refusal of a dissolute young lord ends in entanglement and scandal.

Fatty Arbuckle pitching baseball in pictures posed especially for The TRIBUNE-Kinema Weekly, is an added attraction. Funny Fay Fincher stars in the special comedy, "Mary Moves In."

Coming—Geo. M. Cohan's "Miracle Man."

At the Franklin Wally Reid is a "Love Burglar" all this week. He depicts the social life of his exclusive set to mingle with a bunch of underworld crooks. In sharp contrast to the fluffy dolls who amused him in his dinner coat days is the fiery favorite of the demi-monde whom he takes under his protection. He's known as the "Coh Kid" and his steady nerve and quick wit make him the leader of the gang.—Advertisement.

Boy, in Hills Two Months, Won't Talk

Robert Sheals, fourteen years old, son of an eastern wheat operator, and reported missing from his home two months ago, has been found, and is now in custody of the Berkeley police, pending instructions from his family. The boy was found roaming in the hills near Berkeley by Probation Officer Fred Colter.

The boy disappeared from the home of his grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Moorhead, of 256 Hobart street, Oakland, where he was visiting. His relatives had been informed that he was going on a "bike" with the boy's uncle, but when he did not return a search was instituted.

The boy says he was alone during his two months tramp in the hills, but refuses to explain the details.

TECHNICAL HIGH OPENS AUGUST 25

The Technical Continuation High School, located at Forty-third street and Broadway, reopens August 25. Last year over 5000 men and women enrolled for work at the school. The school maintains two sessions daily—an afternoon session from 2:30 to 4:45 and an evening session from 7:15 to 9:30.

The instruction is handled through four large departments and five smaller departments. The four large departments are the Industrial, the Commercial, Household Economics, and the Academic. The smaller departments are Arts and Crafts, Americanization, Physical Training and Health, Music and Education.

The Industrial department embraces courses in auto repairing, millwrighting, carpentry and cabinet making, pattern making, electrical shop practice, forgery, machine shop practice, mechanical drawing, architectural drafting, machine design, shop mathematics, industrial physics, mechanics and strength of materials, industrial chemistry, and household mechanics. Every instructor is an expert in his line of work.

The commercial department offers a broad training in shorthand, typing, bookkeeping, accounting, arithmetic, penmanship, business English, commercial law, correspondence, spelling and word study, advertising, salesmanship, stenography, office appliances, and a number of other courses.

The household economics department has proved one of the most popular of the school. Courses are offered in dressmaking, millinery, interior decoration, cooking and dietetics. So many women have enrolled for courses in millinery and dressmaking that it has been found necessary to place restrictions upon the length of time students may pursue these courses. The work has been divided into four ten weeks' terms.

In the academic department are offered courses which meet the requirements of the average high school. Students who desire to complete a high school course and graduate from the Technical High School should enroll in this department.

In arts and crafts, the school offers commercial art, freehand drawing, basketry and design. The work in Americanization affords both training in ability to read and write and assistance in securing naturalization papers.

In physical training, large classes are maintained for both men and women.

Technical also offers the following: Red Cross courses, first aid, home care of the sick, and dietetics; in conjunction with the hospitals of Oakland, the school handles a large number of courses for nurses in training. Classes in chemistry and physics, biology and bacteriology, anatomy and physiology and dietetics are maintained.

In music, Technical offers courses in orchestra training, choral and sight singing and harmony.

Afternoon students enroll in room 27 between 2 p. m. and 5 p. m. Evening students enroll in the school between 7 p. m. and 9 p. m. Complete programs showing all courses, rooms, teachers and days of the weeks courses are offered may be obtained from the director of evening schools, room 1112, City Hall.

VENICE, ONCE SO GAY, PURER NOW THAN OLD L. A.

VENICE, Aug. 19.—This town's chief excuse for existence is that it provides amusement and merriment for the people of staid communities in southern California, but soon it may be against the law to giggle here, or to whisper. That is, in some places.

The other day a trustee went to the municipal band concert. Two women behind him giggled, and buzzed, and he lost most of the Second Hungarian Rhapsody.

"I will stop this," said the trustee.

Corporation Taxes Total Large Sum

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 19.—State corporation taxes collected by the State treasury $2,736,241 at the opening of business yesterday, the last day for paying them. Friend W. Richardson, state treasurer, announced. Approximately $500,000 in taxes remained to be paid. A total of 15,053 corporations have paid their franchise and corporation taxes to date, Richardson said.

and forthwith he prepared an ordinance banning all such conduct about the bandstand as disorderly. It is now before the council for adoption.

DRY LAW WILL COST RAILROADS A LARGE SUM

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The annual loss in earnings to the railroads of this country, due to prohibition, will amount to approximately $250,000,000 according to a statement issued here tonight by the Association Opposed to National Prohibition, which also says that railroad officials predict freight rate increases totaling $500,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 annually to make up for the loss of this business and meet the mounting cost of labor and other operating expenses. At least fifteen per cent will have to be added to present rates, it was added.

Pays $50 Fine for Owning Wormy Fruit

IL Resnick was fined $50 by Judge Samuelson on a charge of having wormy fruit in his possession. The complaint was made by D. P. T. Macdonald, deputy county horticultural commissioner.

V. Greco, arrested on a similar charge, was released by Judge Samuelson, when it was shown that the defendant was not the owner of the fruit he was offering for sale, being merely an employee of Resnick.

ing expenses. At least fifteen per cent will have to be added to present rates, it was added.

How to be sure of rich, mellow Home- made Preserves

Experience has taught thousands of housewives that a preserving syrup made of ½ Karo (Red Label) and ½ sugar is the sure successful syrup for putting up fruit.

They get clear, firm jellies, preserves with a rich, heavy syrup, and delicious jams. Then, too, "candying" is avoided when they use this Karo method instead of all sugar alone.

This fine, clear Karo Syrup is a wonderful help in all kinds of preserving.

It blends the sugar with the fruits, brings out the rich, "fruity" flavor, and keeps your jams and jellies mellow in the glass.

For Cooking, Baking and Candy Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

Use ½ Karo
and ½ sugar

Makes perfect jams, jellies and preserves.

EASTBAY SOCIETY NEWS

Portland Belle Is Honor Guest At Bridge Tea

To greet a Portland visitor to the bay cities, Miss Mary Blossom, who is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. T. B. Mills of San Francisco, Mrs. Frank Rolter was hostess at a bridge tea this afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Scott, east of the lake. Mrs. Scott assisted her daughter in receiving the score of more of maids and matrons invited for the afternoon. Among those who played bridge were Mrs. E. L. Heuter, Mrs. Ormond Smith, Mrs. Charles Pardee, Mrs. Frank Makinson, Mrs. Frederick Muhlin, Mrs. Arthur Latham, Mrs. M. A. Preston, Mrs. Roy Wolford, Mrs. Ralph Thornton, Mrs. Chesley, John Roberts, Mrs. Wade Snook, Mrs. Parker McConnell, Miss Blossom, the honor guest, Miss G. M. Zabo, Miss Frances Redman, Miss Emily Crow, Miss Claire Bon, Miss Alice Palmer, Miss Doris Hornemann.

Miss Blossom will remain in the bay region for another month before returning to her home in the northern state. Several informal affairs will be given in her honor before her departure.

Frank Edoff was host Sunday evening at his home on Vernon Heights, entertaining about thirty guests at a social party in honor of Miss Marjorie Hambeau. Miss Alene Edoff assisted her brother. Some of those who were guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butters, Mr. and Mrs. Homer McKee of Sacramento, who has been visiting Mrs. Joseph Kelley in this city, and who has been entertained a good deal while here—Webster Photo Keystone Pictorial Service.

Mrs. William Ede, Dr. and Mrs. Francis Musser, Captain and Mrs. Frederick Bordwell, Mrs. Lulu Rued Webster, Dr. S. H. Eustan, Miss Helene Buetan, Miss Claire Bon, Miss Frances Redman and Messrs. William Bryan, Garner Smith, D. Selby, J. Streubel and a number of others.

EASTBAY BELLES RETURN FROM SCHOOL

The Misses Elizabeth and Louise Finch, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corwin Finch of Vernon Heights, are on route home from Boston where they were graduated from Leland Powers School of the Spoken Word and the Philadelphia Bible School of Expression. En route home they stopped to visit relatives in Cleveland, Ohio, and are at present visiting in Los Angeles, where they have many friends. Miss Elizabeth Finch studied two years at the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Both are graduates of Miss Head's school in Berkeley, and will be welcomed home by a large circle of their former classmates.

Mrs. Homer McKee, who has been visiting Mrs. Joseph Kelley in this city, has returned to her home in Sacramento. The young matron was the inspiration for many delightful afternoons while a guest on this side of the bay.

PLAN TO VISIT IN THE EAST

Miss Gies Nelson Easton is contemplating a trip east, and will accompany her father, John W. Phillips. New York will be their first stopping place where they will be the guests of their relatives, later visiting in other large cities on the Atlantic coast before their return to California.

Mrs. George D. White and Miss Dorothy White returned yesterday from Riverside, having motored south last week via Monterey and Santa Barbara with Mr. and Mrs. George L. Keeney of Honolulu. Keeney sailed today for the islands on the Lurline. Mrs. Keeney remaining on a few weeks longer.

MRS. FERRIER TO RETURN HOME

Mrs. Francis Ferrier is expected to arrive from the Hawaiian Islands in a few days, having been there for the past six months as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ross. Mrs. Ross and her little daughter will come to California for a visit later on. Mrs. Ferrier's daughter, another daughter, is now en route to Europe to join her husband, Lieutenant Goss of the medical corps, in France.

Miss Lulu Wells and Miss Mary E. Nicholl are planning a trip through the east to remain this winter. Miss Wells is a graduate of the University of California and member of the Chi Omega sorority.

Of interest in sorority circles was the announcement of the marriage of Miss Lila Beckley and William Klessiss, whose marriage took place some weeks ago in Fairfield. The bride is one of the popular members of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority and her husband a Delta Chi fraternity man and member of the Big "C" honor society. Before his enlistment in the army Klessiss was a student of law at the state university.

BUTRITIONAL ANNOUNCED AT WEDDING

At the marriage of her sister, Miss Eleanor Hoffman, and Jesse Epstein Sunday evening at the Hotel Oakland, the engagement of the bride's sister, Miss Miriam Hoffman, and Dr. Maurice Glazer of San Francisco was announced.

Dr. Glazer is a graduate of the University of California and of the Affiliated colleges in San Francisco. Miss Hoffman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoffman of this city.

Dr. Glazer served one year with the 91st Division in France.

Women Burned in Air Flight Improve

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 19.—Reported out of danger, Mrs. Edwin Greene and Mrs. Leo J. Trust of El Paso, Texas, are well on the way to recovery today following a miraculous escape from death by fire in an airplane. The clothing of both women was ignited by backfire of the engine of the airplane in which they were riding here while 1500 feet in the air. A nose dive by Pilot Howard Patterson landed the machine in a small lagoon, extinguishing the burning clothing. The action of Aviator Patterson is believed to have saved the women from burning to death. The accident occurred Saturday evening.

Doubt is Cast on Pacific Colony Plan

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 19.—Doubt that the State would be able to establish the proposed Pacific colony, a State institution for defectives on a site selected near Pomona, was expressed today by Clyde L. Seavey, member of the State Board of Control. Complications might arise over water rights for the site which, in the opinion of U. S. Webb, state attorney general, might prove embarrassing to the state, Seavey said.

Reginald Vanderbilt Is Sued for Divorce

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Cathleen (Neilson) Vanderbilt began divorce proceedings against her husband, Reginald C. Vanderbilt of New York by having service made on him at his farm at Portsmouth. Mrs. Vanderbilt alleges desertion and will ask for the custody of their only child, a daughter, Cathleen. Mrs. Vanderbilt and her husband were married sixteen years ago. He is the youngest son of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt.

OAKLANDERS IN COURT. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Charging failure to provide, Mrs. Ethel M. Frink filed a divorce petition here to day against Stanley S. Frink. They were married in Oakland April 8, 1917.

WAR STIMULATES CLASSIC TREND

Students attending St. Mary's College this term show an unusual inclination to the academic courses, statistics compiled following the opening of the junior department show.

This is attributed to a reaction brought about by the war. The academic departments and the college of commerce opened Monday. The figures upon the registration, which were compiled today by Brother Flannery, the registrar, show that the academic department is all but overcrowded. Students outnumber those taking the business courses. This means that the majority of the students are contemplating taking a course in the college of letters, arts or sciences, as the academic courses are preparatory to these.

Shortly before the outbreak of the war the leaning was to the business course, statistics show. According to Brother Gregory, president of the college, these registration statistics have almost always followed the general trend of public thought and sentiment.

"Before the war the public trend was to business and commerce," he said. "But now I feel confident that the trend is toward the higher things in life. The opinion of the students is generally a safe barometer."

Registration for the college department, which opens on September 2, in a way, indicates the same thing that the junior department registration does. There is an increased number of students contemplating taking a college course. Many are leaving the army for a college education.

Registration for both branches of St. Mary's will continue until September.

Boy Disappears With Expressman

Milford Hong, age 14, living with his aunt at 1332 Webster street, went away yesterday afternoon with a transfer man who promised the aunt that he would bring the boy back in an hour or two. He said they were going to 6125 Foothill boulevard. The aunt, Miss Anna Hall, today appealed to the Oakland police to find the boy. The officers were given a complete description of the lad and also of the transfer man. The boy wore knee pants and a green cap.

DOUGHBODY SPEAKER

MODESTO, Aug. 19.—Speaking here last night on the "League of Nations and the Doughboy," Nelson C. Webber, Oakland war veteran, was accorded an ovation by the citizens of Modesto. Webber leaves for San Jose today where he will speak before the Rotary Club next Wednesday.

Herman Whitaker's Home, Built by Self, to Be Sold

The home that Herman Whitaker, writer, poet and TRIBUNE correspondent, built with his own hands is to be sold. Continued ill health and the advice of her physicians that she go to the southern part of California for some months at least has prompted Mrs. Whitaker to place on the market the picturesque Piedmont place which in the past six years has been the rendezvous for artists, musicians and literary folk about the bay and the meeting place for distinguished men of letters from the east when they have been on the coast.

The author of "The Planter" built on top of the Piedmont hills overlooking the Golden Gate the quaint home. The work took many months of strenuous effort which was the relief from the strain of composition. The furniture of the entire house was hand-made by Whitaker and finished by his wife. Many of the books and souvenirs of the nationally known writer, together with the furniture, will be sold with the property.

The late Jack London, Harrison Fisher and others to whom Whitaker was close in his work made the place their second home. After traveling around the world, he selected the site as being the most beautiful of any he had ever looked upon. Mrs. Whitaker is leaving next month for the south.

Germany Disbands Its Food Boards

BERLIN, Aug. 19.—Five of the twenty-seven societies formed to control Germany's food supply have already been disbanded, and it is announced that others will follow in the near future. The central purchasing company which supervised the buying of all Germany's war food is now being used as an employment bureau.

ALCATRAZ ISLAND PASSES TO CEASE

Passes to and from Alcatraz Island have been held up, and only under strict guard can visitors or persons with business at the disciplinary barracks visit and leave the place, as the result of the attempt of four "conscientious objectors" imprisoned there, to escape from the bay prison. Breaking into the commissary department and stealing civilian clothing, the four made a bold attempt to obtain freedom, two getting aboard the government launch leaving the island, posing as employees, and the other two hiding behind a pier and planning to mingle with the members of a visiting baseball team.

The attempt to escape, made Sunday night, was discovered by Captain George Hornsman, of the government tug "General McDowell." The master of the tug noticed that the two men who came aboard had apparently been wading in the bay, the bottoms of their trousers being wet, and questioned them. They stated that they were going ashore, and that the officer of the day had told them "they wouldn't need a pass." Hornsman pretended to accept the explanation, but secretly notified the guard, and the men were seized. The other two men were then located under the pier.

The men are known by numbers, and the Alcatraz authorities say they refused to give their names when recaptured. Colonel Joseph Garrard, commandant at the island, says that they are among the men whose friends had recently complained of brutal treatment for objectors at the prison.

Labor Is Opposed to Archduke Joseph

BUDAPEST, Sunday, Aug. 17. (By The Associated Press)—Hungary is bolting over with the opposition of the labor element to Archduke Joseph, the regent, and also with anti-Jewish movements started by the "help Hungary" party. The Rumanians continue their requisitions, although late last night they acceded in principle to the demands of the four allied generals that requisition should cease. The Czechs and Serbs have agreed to the request of the allied generals to halt the advance of their troops.

EDUCATORS FACE TEACHER PROBLEM

YOSEMITE, Aug. 19.—The teacher shortage, teacher unions, the effect of the war on education and school finances were among the subjects discussed here by Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction in the opening address of the annual convention of school superintendents of California.

"The best way to meet the teacher shortage is to make the teaching work more attractive and the reward more nearly commensurate with the service rendered and more comparable with the financial rewards for service in the business world," Wood said, after declaring that several counties had appealed to the state office for assistance in securing a sufficient number of teachers.

"The normal schools have been unable to supply them to meet the demands," he said. "The situation emphasizes the need for a better and more comprehensive plan for teacher training in California," he said.

Regarding the organization of teachers' unions and the affiliation of some with labor organizations, Wood said "it is a problem we must face with open minds rather than mailed fists."

Howard Wants Name In Electric Letters

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Willie Howard, who with his brother Eugene Howard, plays a comedy part at the Palace theater, testified on the witness stand that they received $500 each per week for their work. Howard said that his principal grievance was the fact that Howard Brothers were not featured by the Shuberts in conspicuous electric letters outside the theater. He disclaimed any intention of striking "although I would like to." When asked if there was any actor who could take his place if he should strike, he said: "Well, Dave Warfield might."

VETS OUTLINE NEW MEMORIAL PLAN

Five veterans of American wars, in a letter to the Board of Supervisors, propose a plan for raising funds with which to build a suitable memorial in Oakland. They set forth in their communication, in which they ask for $2500 to aid their project, that they are organizing a home industry show, to be housed in tents and exhibited in all the cities of the county and in twenty cities of the state. All the state receipts are to go into the fund, no one making any per cent of profit.

ONE TRUSTY AT EACH STATION WILL BE LIMIT

"One trusty to a station." This is the new order of Chief of Police J. P. Lynch, limiting to a single man prisoners sent out from the city prison to the eastern and northern stations for work around lawns or janitor services. The order follows the escape of Bob Clark, who got away from the Eastern station, and was brought back from Stockton today to finish his term for larceny. Clark escaped by walking away from the station lawn, which he was sent as a trusty to mow, and was recaptured by the Stockton police. It was explained that there were two trusties at the station at the time, and one escaped while the other was being watched. In view of this Chief Lynch ordered that only one man at a time be placed in a station. He holds that one man is enough to do the work.

PACIFIC FLIGHT PLANNED BY REED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—An American naval officer will be the first aviator to fly across the Pacific ocean, if plans being worked out by the Navy Department mature successfully. Commander Reed, who made the first flight across the Atlantic, is slated to head the Pacific expedition. The flight will be from San Francisco to Manila and thence to the mainland of Asia. Compared with the Atlantic flight this undertaking will be gigantic. This distance flown will be nearly twice that in the case of the air voyage to Europe. Tentative plans will call for a flight in four legs to Manila, comprising a total distance of more than 7500 miles. The first leg will be San Francisco to Honolulu, 2059 miles; second leg, Honolulu to Midway Island, 1100 miles; third leg, Midway Island to Guam, 2000 miles; Guam to Manila, 2500 miles. This course follows the Pacific cable route, stations of which are established on Guam and Midway Islands.

Nebraska Slayer Rescued from Mob

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 19.—After wounding and overpowering two armed deputy sheriffs during a fight, in which he, too, was shot, O. W. Langley, a farmer of Cortland, surrendered into a general store at this place last night and shot Justice of the Peace Chris Pfeiffer through the heart. Langley was saved from lynching only through pleadings of conservative citizens.

Negro Kills Farmer, Shoots Girl, Escapes

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 19.—George Peters, 55, a farmer of Arundel, Prince Georges county, was murdered and his body set afire today by an unidentified negro. Catherine Peters, his daughter, shot through the breast and arm, was taken to a Washington hospital. A posse was formed at Bowie and is searching for the assailant.

Strike Threatened By Comstock Miners

RHINO, Nev., Aug. 19.—Miners employed in the Comstock mines at Virginia City, Nev., have voted, by referendum, to go on strike unless their demand for $1 a day increase in wages is granted.

POLICE CHIEF TO TEST WAR-DRY STATUTE

Oakland is out to make the war-time prohibition act prohibitive, today declared Chief of Police J. P. Lynch. He is ready to take the initiative, he said. No matter what other cities do, Chief Lynch asserted that he will test out the law.

In pursuance of this proclamation, he interviewed two saloonmen today. The interviews were long and the chief said that they were exhaustive.

One of his subjects was William Reichold, with an employment at 414 Fourteenth street. It was in front of his place that a taxi driver was killed yesterday morning with an automobile of his.

The other victim was George Brandt, whose saloon is at 504 Fifth street. Officer Fred Shipton reported for thirty days and a yearning for a party, no longer can provide at beachman's board. Sanctuary will not be the lot of the bootlegger. The blind pig is going to lose the use of one of his features than his eye.

Prosecution will be ordered, said the chief, under the war-time prohibition law. The act will be given a thorough test, he asserted.

CLUB PROTESTS MERGER VOTING

The first organization within the county to protest the proposed special election of freeholders for the drafting of a consolidated city and county government charter is the Ashby Club, 2122 Woolsey street, in Berkeley.

The club has written to the Board of Supervisors objecting to the proposal to provide $15,000 in the budget for such purpose, until some approval of the scheme by the political units of the county has been manifested in some proper and authoritative manner.

The board has the money available for the purpose and there has been indication that the members of the political units of the county have been manifested in some proper and authoritative manner.

'Keep Smiling,' Motto of Tribune Junior

Numerous subjects that appeal to boys are reviewed in an interesting way in the August issue of The TRIBUNE Junior, which is just off the press.

The magazine is devoted to the interests of the boys who serve The TRIBUNE, and which is edited by the carriers, makes a strong plea for devotion to duty and efficiency. The TRIBUNE's "fighting strength" is shown in a picture of a group of the carriers.

In addition to serious matters that pertain to the duties of carriers, the magazine is devoted to various sports and other forms of amusement. The slogan of the carriers is: "Just keep smiling." It is pointed out that nothing is to be gained by fretting and that the word "can't" has never accomplished anything in life.

'Subsidized' Cars in School Use, Kept

The "subsidized" automobiles in the school department, which formed the basis for several political campaigns at the last election, have been allowed to stay by a vote of the Board of Education last night. Six machines, privately owned, but used in business by employees of the school board, are to be maintained by an appropriation of $25 a month while used on city business.

Hoteling Defense Is Completed German Count Engagement Denied

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The outstanding feature of the Hoteling trial here today was the introduction of what purported to be a photograph of an alleged confession made by Frederick M. Hoteling and the testimony of Mrs. Ella Hoteling, who, with her brother-in-law, Richard M. Hoteling, is divided in the action brought by the mother, Mrs. Levia Hoteling, seeking to recover a portion alleged to have been misappropriated by her oldest son.

The admissibility of a photograph of an alleged confession was not ruled upon by Superior Judge John Hunt, but according to Attorney Peter Dunne, chief counsel for the defendant, the younger brother was alleged to have admitted the sending of anonymous postcards and postcards to a frat house in Berkeley and to being the author of an article concerning the Hoteling family which appeared in a local weekly.

Never engaged to count. Mrs. Levia Hoteling volunteered that the German count to whom she was said to be engaged never existed.

"I never intended to marry a German, though I knew half a dozen quite well. The one probably referred to here lived in Alameda county while a youth and I later met him in Paris."

The defense then rested.

Attorney Gavin McNah, chief counsel for Mrs. Levia Hoteling, called her to the stand in rebuttal testimony of that given by numerous witnesses who appeared in behalf of her son Richard that he had been in the Hoteling family since the stock of the Hoteling Estate Company, which are at issue in this case.

General and unqualified denial of the purported conversations she was alleged to have made resulting with the reading line by line of the testimony of these witnesses. Most emphatic was her denial of the following taken from the testimony of Mrs. Levia Hoteling, a witness yesterday: "No, the ranch is Dick's and he is not giving things away, and as for not giving or no account, this gentleman with a handle to his name, we are acquainted with him and we will have another von Schroeder case in the family."

LETTER FROM DICK. Yesterday's session in court produced several notes of interest in the otherwise discordant symphony of the Hoteling family. A letter from Richard Hoteling to his mother, dated March 25, 1918, introduced to show that Mrs. Levia Hoteling had full knowledge of the transfer of her stock to the son.

The letter follows:

Mother, March 25th is your birthday. I write to let you know I am mindful of the day. Further than that I have but to add that the war's demands have laid a heavy burden upon the Hoteling estate's affairs and thousands have been taken. I urge upon you the strictest economy. It is my duty and obligation to provide you with everything necessary and give you every physical comfort possible that normally you could require, and I trust you will not allow anything to be done that is expensive or useless.

Little Jane begins to talk. Ella tells me she wants to go always to the window that is growing to your house, and she says "Lady, lady." We wonder if you have spoken to her across the way in secret because you are afraid of trouble by approaching to see her or talking to her with her nurse in the street. You have never seen your great-grandson. What do you think father would be referred to here would I mean, or your son George, or that loving son, Grandmother Linon, who rocked to sleep upon her breast your three first born sons. Little Jane is growing splendidly, and I am eager for the first of May to come, when they will all be with me at Sicily Hollow.

The past year has been a sad one for me. The many boys that I hold in loving regard that have gone to war have left a deep sorrow in my heart; all fine lads and some may have come home or diseased, or worse. Still I am proud of them. They are not useless. Not worthless shirkers, nor cowards, but they are growing and their mothers rejoice that they are their sons.

But my note is growing too long. I've wandered from my theme. Be assured you and I are growing old together and I am growing old. I am steering a true course and I shall hold steadfast to it.

My door is ever open to you if you wish to come to me to see me. I hope some day the big light will come to you and spare you another bitter earth-bound to learn a lesson that this life should have taught you.

RICHARD M. HOTELING.

GOVERNORS JOIN LOVE PACT LAID IN H.C.L. FIGHT TO WIFE IN SUIT

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 19.—The problem of the high cost of living will be taken directly from Salt Lake to Washington by a committee of seven governors and their representatives to congress and the administration in connection with a resolution which was offered today.

This decision was reached at a preliminary caucus of governors at the Hotel Utah late last night.

It is understood that this committee of seven state executives will be selected at once and that they will proceed to Washington within the next ten days or two weeks.

U. of C. Credits Win High School Diplomats

University of California credits were applied to graduates from Oakland high schools for the first time in the history of the Oakland school system today, when two students were given diplomas, their high school courses having been completed by the allowing of credits for work in the university summer session.

William Erelia, Oakland high school, and Milo C. Ayer, Technical high school, were the graduates.

It is understood that the graduation credits in their high schools last term, and attended the summer session, making up these credits. The diplomas were allowed today by Superintendent Fred Hunter's office and credits awarded, as if the students had graduated last term.

THREE INJURED SUIT TO OUST CITY ATTORNEY IN WRECK OF SKIDDING CAR IS THREATENED

HAYWARD, Aug. 19.—Death or serious injury were narrowly avoided last night when the automobile of Dr. J. J. Medros, local physician, hit a sign post at A street and Boulevard, crashed across the street and crashed into another automobile standing before the First Congregational church. In the car with the physician were relatives from Guatemala. One of his two nephews in the car had his ankle broken in the collision.

All of the automobile were badly shaken and bruised by the accident and it was necessary to take them to the hospital in other cars. The physician stood the full impact from the large motor machine is a complete wreck. It was a new machine, just purchased yesterday by Harry Owen, 34, Eden flourish and an electrician in the city.

The physician was a functionary at the time of the accident.

That the Medros automobile did not crash through the church walls and into a large nearby building at a party, there is due to Owen automobile, which was parked in the doorway. Had the huge sedan car gone through the church walls and into the building, the result would have been different.

The accident occurred at 9 o'clock in the evening, at a time when the street was not wholly busy. Mr. Medros, a local physician, was unable to give any reason for his car's misbehavior, other than that he lost control of it.

His two nephews, daughters of a prominent family in the southern republic, are not more than 10 years old each. Medros and the party, all of them, were returning from a party on Dubois boulevard when the collision occurred.

LLOYD GEORGE'S SPEECH SCORED BY LONDON PRESS

LONDON, Aug. 19.—There was a note of dissatisfaction in the opinion of many of the newspapers today on the "warning speech" of Premier Lloyd George at the House of Commons yesterday.

The government's course, outlined by the premier, was described by the Morning Post as a "Mistake of policy." The Morning Post, however, in its editorial, said that the premier's speech was a "disheartening compromise."

On the other hand, the Chronicle says that the speech "takes the stuffing out of the feared Budget."

According to the Daily Mail (a Northcliffe newspaper) the speech leaves the people still in the dark.

The most serious omission was the failure to recognize the strength of the opposition in the chamber of expenditures in practically all departments of the government," said the Daily Telegraph.

"The people want to see rearmament in the hands of the government," said the Daily Telegraph.

The Times called the speech "disheartening and lacking in method." Omission of reference to Ireland was remarked by several newspapers.

U.S. MAY OBTAIN ISLAND OF YAP FOR NAVY BASE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The United States may obtain control of the island of Yap in the Pacific for naval and communication purposes, it developed today at a meeting of the committee on the Pacific foreign relations committee.

Japan's secret agreement with Great Britain for disposal of Shanghai and the Pacific Islands, and would not interfere with the United States getting an island in the Pacific, naval said.

American naval authorities have pointed out the importance of the island of Yap in the Pacific, and the United States having such a base, and Wilson said he specified at the peace conference that control of Yap should be reserved for a future conference on the Pacific Islands.

At last night's meeting of the Alameda and Contra Costa Metal Trades Council, copies of the shipyard wage agreement were handed out to the members of their next few meetings the potential contract will be read to the rank and file, following which a referendum vote will occur. All members are urged to attend.

Move Made to Speed Bascule Bridge S. P. Stand on Estuary Span Opposed

The first step in a move to push construction on the proposed bascule bridge across the estuary, without the delay advocated by the Southern Pacific, was taken today when a committee was appointed from the Harbor committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

This committee will meet at noon tomorrow at the Hotel Oakland with County Supervisor Hamilton and County Supervisor Hyland to prepare for some immediate action.

The members of the committee are: J. J. McElroy, chairman; E. M. Hughes, A. H. Reed, District Attorney Ezra Decoto, Russell Lowry, City Commissioner Frederick Soler, and A. Youngblood.

The committee believes that the people of Alameda county demand that this modern bridge, to connect Oakland and Alameda, should be constructed without delay. The project is a long overdue one, and the elimination of the old water-level bridges now in use in response to the demand of the large industrial plants upon our inner harbor—this is the general bridge plan, were taken to the New York office of the company several weeks ago for revision and correction. Our engineer, Mr. Hyland, has been in consultation with the company's chief engineer, but has received no advice that the plans have finally been completed, and much less any authentic cost price of the structure.

"The U. S. government is ordered the elimination of the old water-level bridges now in use in response to the demand of the large industrial plants upon our inner harbor—this is the general bridge plan, were taken to the New York office of the company several weeks ago for revision and correction. Our engineer, Mr. Hyland, has been in consultation with the company's chief engineer, but has received no advice that the plans have finally been completed, and much less any authentic cost price of the structure."

EXETERIA GROWTH

"Every taxpayer is more desirous of encouraging and building up this industrial growth at this time, and to construct this bridge as a compulsory act, than they are at the present time to build our county hospital upon this high cost level as one developed means lower taxes and the other additional tax burdens."

The complete survey for a tube system of sufficient capacity under the inner harbor, is upon public notice in the county supervisor's office. The prohibitive cost price at that time would of course, be much greater than the cost of the bridge, which is estimated to be built for a million dollars, would require the expenditure of three million dollars.

A bond issue for $1,500,000 was voted in 1917, but the war held up the project.

The company is under contract with the county to have half the expense of the construction. The supervisors are considering two proposals, to force the issue at once or to wait three years, when prices may be lower. Supervisors are to be the board that the people of Alameda were insistent that the bridge be built. A proposal for an underground tube has been made, but its advocates say it would be more permanent.

The Downtown Property Owners' association also took action today, when the following statement was issued by A. S. Day on behalf of the executive committee:

"The Southern Pacific Co. again fails to co-operate for necessary public convenience in the construction of the bridge, which would go forward an excess cost of the new Bascule bridge at this time, is not only inane."

Close Three Flour Mills; Weevil Found

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 19.—Action on charges that three Portland flour mills have been turning out flour infested with weevil. City Health Officer Parrish today ordered the plants closed, saying he had discovered that the conveyors and other machinery of the plants were thickly populated with the beetles. The plants are the Portland Flouring Mills, the Crown Mills and the Kerr-Gifford Mills.

All the stocks of flour on hand will be held from the market until permission is received to sell the product branded as being infested with the weevil.

The mills are among the largest in the Northwest and were purchased about a year ago by Max N. Houser, vice-president of the United States grain corporation.

673 Horsepower in New U.S. Air Motor

MRS. MOORE'S NEPHEWS HER PALLBEARERS

The seven nephews of Mrs. Jacqueline Anne Hall Moore, wife of A. A. Moore, prominent California barrister, acted as pallbearers when funeral services were held this afternoon for the well-known woman at the Moore family home in Sixth avenue. They were Dr. Channing Hall, Charles Hall, sons of the late Judge S. P. Hall, brother of Mrs. Moore; Shirley Walker, Harold Walker, Lloyd Beanson, Wallace Beanson and Maxwell Beanson, sons of the late Judge S. P. Hall's brother, Dr. S. P. Hall's quarter choir. The services were conducted by Rev. Alexander A. Hall, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church. St. Paul's quarter choir, consisting of several young men, were Mrs. Moore's favorites, including "Abide with Me." The interment was private.

Mrs. Moore represented one of the pioneer families to come to Alameda county. Her residence was established here in 1873. For forty years her home has been in East Oakland. ## ONLY THING THAT EVER HELPED ME

McIntyre Says He Feels Like a Different Man Since Taking Tanlac

"This beats all the medicines I have ever heard of," said James P. McIntyre, a well-known employee of Hultine & Hart, wool dealers, who lives at 562 San Bruno avenue, San Francisco, recently.

"At the time I got Tanlac," he continued, "I had been in a mighty bad fix for at least six months. After eating I would get pains in my stomach that would last for two or three hours and there was a pain in my left side all the time. I could eat nothing but what would sour and ferment and the gas on my stomach would press on my heart, causing such sharp pains that I feared I had heart trouble. I was constantly taking something, but it did me no good. My tongue was coated, and I always had a mean taste in my mouth. I was so nervous the least little thing would irritate me and get me all excited and unstrung. My kidneys were also in bad shape, and together with my nervousness, worried me so at night that I could hardly sleep. I read about Tanlac in the papers and everyone I asked about it recommended to me. So I tried it and I just want to say right now it is the only thing I found that did me the least bit of good. My appetite is just fine and I haven't been bothered for some time with gas forming on my stomach, and I am eating anything I want. My tongue has cleared off, the bad taste is gone and it's the first time in six months that I have been free from pain in my side and around my heart. My nerves and kidneys don't bother me now at all and I can sleep as sound as a baby for eight hours every night and get up in the morning feeling fine. I am feeling like an entirely different man. I don't know what it is, but there's something about Tanlac that certainly does the work."

THIRD SKELETON IN FARM MYSTERY

MAPLE HILL, Kan., Aug. 19.—Rufus King, accused "keeper of a murder farm," was to face another charge of murder today, following the uncovering yesterday of a third skeleton near his old livery barn here. The skeleton was identified as that of John Woody, of Paxico, who disappeared about ten years ago while in the employ of King. King is now held in the county jail at Topeka as a precaution against possible violence. The skeleton was identified immediately by Dawson Woody, the boy's father, by means of two gold teeth and black hair.

King, who has steadily maintained a calm demeanor, stoutly denied the Woody murder, as he did the other two. Authorities are seeking the wife of King, and another woman, who live in a town in the Pueblo, Colo., foothills, where King was arrested.

DR. GULICK DENIES PHELAN'S CHARGE

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Dr. Sidney L. Gulick, secretary of the national committee for constructive immigration legislation, has issued a statement denying assertions made in a statement given out in Washington which charged that the new immigration bill introduced by Senator Dillingham was sponsored by Dr. Gulick and that he was a Japanese agent. After comparing the Dillingham bill with that favored by the committee of which he is secretary, Dr. Gulick said:

"Senator Phelan likewise stated that Dr. Gulick is simply a Japanese agent." He stated in effect that the national committee's proposal which he confuses with Senator Dillingham's proposal, has been formed in consultation with Japanese and is financially promoted by Japanese. He made public, in support of this confused allegation, a letter to Dr. Gulick from Mr. Kawakami, without making plain to Dr. Gulick that the letter was from the Japanese or any other foreign source, official or private."

Government to War Against Social Evil

BERLIN, (By Mail).—The government is about to start a fight to get some control of the social evil problem. With Berlin in present one of the most vicious cities on the continent, the government parties are giving consideration to regulation of the white slave traffic. The parties of the Right must that segregated districts shall be maintained, and that governmental inspection and supervision shall be maintained. On the other hand, the parties of the Left declare against this legitimization of vice, and insist that there shall be no red light districts. The question arose within the government because of the alarming spread of social diseases, following in the wake of an unbridled wave of social evil. The government takes the position that, with medical supervision, the amount of these diseases could be minimized.

Municipal Board Vacancies Filled

Two appointments to municipal boards have been announced by Mayor John L. Davis. Mrs. B. B. De Rome was formally appointed to the Library board, vice Warren Olney, whose term has expired and Lynne Stanley, a local merchant, was named to the playground board vice J. E. Orr. Mrs. De Rome is prominent in women's club activities and was one of the founders of the Golden Gate Branch Library. Stanley is active in the new Oakland Athletic Club now being formed.

Japanese Buy Mines in Chile, Complaint

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. SANTIAGO, Aug. 17.—Newspapers call attention to the extensive purchases of mining properties by Japanese in Chile. It is said that more than $5,000,000 is invested in copper and iron properties along the Northern railway. Recently Japanese have taken options on coal acreage surrounding the naval port of Talcahuano, just north of Concepcion. The newspapers state the number of Japanese coming here is growing steadily, although Japanese trade interests are inconsiderable.

CARRIES FOOD TO STARVING ARMENIANS

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19.—Commander N. C. Frey of this city, who has just returned to this coast after being in command of the new Pacific army transport Newport News while the vessel was in Eastern service, carried on his last trip across the Atlantic the American food, clothing and medical supplies for the starving Armenians and Syrians. The cargo was made up of both new and used supplies raised for the Syrians and Armenians in America.

The vessel docked at Derrindge, 10 miles from Constantinople and a station on the Bagdad railway. Derrindge was a great military base for the Germans during the war. There are great military warehouses there. Two of these warehouses are still filled with millions of paper sacks which were to be filled with flour and used to hold up the Suez canal. Railway material, and vast quantities of quantities of war are still at this Turkish depot. The supplies are under Turkish guard.

ONE KILLED, FOUR HURT AS AUTO UPSETS

At Derrindge the Alameda mariner saw many thousands of refugees making their way back into the interior. Their condition was pitiful. They were sick, starving, without food, clothing or money. Women and children were suffering for the bare necessities of life. Long before the Newport News reached port the ship's crew ordered every crust of bread and all state leaves of sweet bread saved. This bread was baked cooked by the steamer's cook into a sort of bread mulligan, and the starving crowds were fed till the supply of old bread was exhausted. The crowds of hungry men, women and children ate ravenously and apparently were without other food than that supplied by the American vessel.

VESSEL AVOIDS MINES

The Atlantic, the Mediterranean, the Dardanelles, the Sea of Marmora and the Aegean sea are thickly studded with floating mines. At Derrindge the Newport News was supplied with a British Admiralty chart. The vessel steered a course in deep water, 150 fathoms or more, as mines are not laid where the water depth is over 150 fathoms. The steamer kept 20 miles from the coast of Africa, 25 miles from the coast of Sicily and threaded a winding trail through the narrow connecting passages joining the Mediterranean, the Sea of Marmora and the Aegean Sea.

The Newport News has a cargo capacity of about 6000 tons, being slightly smaller than the Sherman, Sheridan and Thomas, the old-time Pacific transports. The vessel was formerly a Hamburg-American liner.

The Newport News went to Derrindge from Norfolk, sailing April 26. Forty autos were among the cargo.

The vessel left the Atlantic for San Francisco July 12, reaching San Francisco August 19.

Captain Frey endeavored to pick up while in Turkey some Turkish curios, rugs, etc., but the thoroughgoing Germans had gathered up everything of value. Turkey is in a state of demoralization and the state is far from promising.

The Newport News will now run between San Francisco and Manila, with stops at Honolulu and Guam.

Alameda Elks to Hold Jinks Aug. 28

ALAMEDA, Aug. 19.—The Alameda Elks will have a high jinks August 28, the first big social affair of the season since the summer vacation period started. Chairman F. J. Trol of the entertainment committee promises an exceptional entertainment of varied numbers, but so far is keeping the program secret.

There will be a spread along with the show.

Why My Baby Sleeps So Well

At ten o'clock I wake him up just enough to get that warm bottle into his chubby hands—and I have to watch him to see that he doesn't slip back sound asleep over it—and then not a sound out of him except his soft breathing until seven next morning!

Some other babies I have heard of wake up and cry during the night—but not mine, because his little stomach has no trouble with his food.

You see, it's Nestlé's Milk Food. Just a form of milk easier to digest than ordinary milk, because it's in powder form that breaks up the hard to digest curd. And more nourishing for him, too—because it has in it just the right amount of sugar and cereal.

The Nestlé Company likes to save babies and put them on the road to health. They gave me free a big Mother's Book on baby feeding by specialists, and enough Nestlé's Food for twelve feedings. They will be glad to do this for you, too, if you will send them your name on the coupon below. I know your baby can be as well and strong as mine!

Nestlé's is pure milk in powder form that is already modified and does not require the further addition of milk. Always pure and safe, always uniform, and free from the dangers of home modification, Nestlé's has stood the test of three generations and has today the largest sale of any baby food in the world.

FREE! Enough Nestlé's for 12 feedings. Send the coupon!

U. C. STUDENTS TAKEN TO HOMES BY BOY SCOUTS

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—Responding to appeals for assistance in helping students at the University of California find quarters, Berkeley's Boy Scouts are aiding newcomers arriving at college.

After an active summer of camping and hiking in the hills, Berkeley's Boy Scouts have inaugurated activities by going to the assistance of the hundreds of incoming college men and women.

Scouts have been stationed on the busy downtown corners and all gates to the university and at some of the larger buildings, and thousands of students have been directed to boarding houses, rooms, places to buy things, and various buildings on the campus. Scout Executive Charles H. Hunt estimated that over 4000 people received information.

A poster in front of headquarters announced that Berkeley Scouts stood ready to welcome and assist all newcomers to Berkeley and many people availed themselves of the opportunity. Many interesting situations arose. A French soldier who could not speak a word of English was assisted in finding relatives.

Scouts at the university were in charge of merit badge Scout Leonard Keeler of troop nine.

SOPHS AND FRESHIES TO GIVE BATTLE

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—To arms! Through the oaks and towering eucalyptus on the campus of the University of California today sounded forth a battle call more fierce than any which echoed on the battlefields of Europe.

Advances on the Marne and battles in the Argonne will sink into oblivion as compared to a fray which is scheduled for Saturday on the college campus when freshmen and sophomores meet in their annual "brawl" to determine the supremacy of the two lower classes.

More than 3000 freshmen there are with sophomores numbering considerably less but the inexperience of the "babies" in methods of campus warfare is expected to make the battle an even one. All the rules of "international" warfare will be strictly adhered to in Saturday's battle, members of the "Big C" Society to be on hand to see that no objectionable tactics are employed by either side.

California Field will be the setting for the fray. The usual tug of war in which the two classes have tested their strength in previous years will again be a feature. Jousting matches have also been arranged while a 100-man relay race will come as a grand finale. The big feature of the day will be a grand "deal-up" the victors of which will deal with their captors as they see fit.

H. R. Johnson, grand marshal of the battle forces, is preparing to spring several surprise attacks, one of which is declared to be a hose stunt of other years if the Berkeley fire department can be persuaded to lend enough of their old fire-fighting apparatus to arm both sides for a water fight. Another stunt will probably be the chasing of an elusive greased pig.

On the staff of "General" Johnson as officers for the fray are Charles Tilden, Frederick Brooks, M. H. Peterson, A. B. Sprout, J. W. Merchant and O. C. Majors.

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—Enthusiastic at having witnessed the arrival of the big new Pacific Fleet, which will shortly be entertained in the bay region, Major O. S. Johnson, Berkeley's official representative at San Diego's welcome to Uncle Sam's fighting armada, returned yesterday from the south declaring the aggregation of warships to be wonderful.

Major Johnson had every opportunity to see the fleet at close range, he stated, and he was greatly impressed with the splendid showing made by the big battleships, the destroyers, the super-dreadnaughts and all the other ships of the fleet, whose officers and men will be the guests of the bay cities on September 4.

In company with Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Governor Stephens of California, the governors of Arizona and New Mexico and some of the officers of the fleet, Major Johnson visited the different ships and was able to get a close-up impression of Uncle Sam's big Pacific battleships.

"We left San Diego on board the 'Chauncey,'" said Johnson, "and after breakfast was served we visited the different battleships at anchor in the harbor and those in the roadstead."

"Though the super-dreadnaughts remained outside the harbor, the other ships entered the harbor and the noise of the saluting guns, the steam whistles and the general uproar made by the citizens of that city to show their joy on this occasion made an impression I shall never forget."

"All the officers and men with whom I talked said that they looked forward to their visit to San Francisco and the Eastbay cities. They were pleased to learn that Berkeley was making extensive preparations to entertain them."

"One of the finest sights I ever saw was the review of the ships, which was held upon the wide expanse of the ocean at San Diego. As the different super-dreadnaughts, battleships, destroyer cruisers and other ships steamed by in a majestic array I could not help but think that Uncle Sam had at last a worthy fleet to guard the great Western ocean fronting his Pacific shores."

Stating that the citizens of San Diego did everything possible to make the visitors feel at home and that a splendid banquet followed by a dance was tendered the officers of the fleet at the Hotel Del Coronado, Major Johnson said:

"The people of San Francisco and the bay cities will have an opportunity for entertaining one of the finest fleets that ever sailed any sea and as splendid a body of officers and men as ever gathered on an occasion like this."

Major Johnson said that approximately 20,000 men would make up the personnel of the fleet upon its arrival in San Francisco Bay.

Berkeley and the Eastbay cities are going ahead with their reception plans and already the work of the various committees in charge of the different phases of the work is well under way.

Mayor Louis Bartlett is taking a keen interest in the various plans provided for Berkeley's share of the fleet entertainment and is working hard to get Fleet Day, September 4, one of the biggest days in Berkeley's history.

BERKELEY HOME ROBBED

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—That a burglar entered the residence of Harry R. Rathbone, 53 Parkside drive, yesterday afternoon and stole jewelry amounting to $398.25 was reported this morning by his daughter, Miss A. T. Rathbone. Entrance was gained through the rear door. The house was completely ransacked. No trace of the intruder has been obtained.

STANDARD COLLECTOR ROBBED

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 19.—Police today are scouring the city for three auto bandits who late yesterday afternoon held up William Baldwin, 27-year-old collector for the Standard Oil company, and robbed him of a leather bag containing $2000 cash.

ONE KILLED, FOUR HURT AS AUTO UPSETS

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—With one dead and four others injured, a pleasure trip to Fresno from Berkeley ended in tragedy yesterday for the family of H. W. Gardner, 1233 Bay View Place, an employee of the Western Union Telegraph company.

Mrs. Mary Allen Dannan, 80 years old, mother of Mrs. Gardner is dead from injuries sustained yesterday when the automobile in which she and members of the Gardner family were riding turned over on the state highway near Atholene, Gardner, who was driving the car, was slightly injured, receiving cuts on the face and hands, while his wife and two sons, Lieutenant Roger E. Gardner and Horace Gardner, received painful injuries. None of the injured persons are in a serious condition, however.

According to the elder Gardner the accident occurred when he attempted to pass a car driven by A. M. Ferguson of Maricopa. Gardner said he sounded his horn, and Ferguson pulled to one side of the road as if to allow him to pass. Then when his car was almost abreast Gardner declared Ferguson swerved back into the center of the highway.

In an attempt to avoid a collision Gardner turned his car sharply to the left. The wheels of the machine stuck in a sand pile and the automobile overturned, pinning Mrs. Dannan under the car.

Ferguson, who left his address with officers at the Hotel Holland, San Francisco, continued on his way. Mrs. Dannan suffered a fractured collarbone and injuries to her shoulders which caused her death shortly after the accident. Lieutenant Gardner has a fractured collarbone and a dislocated shoulder while his brother suffered a punctured lung and fractures of ribs on one side of his body, with cuts also on the face and head.

The motorists were returning to Berkeley after having taken Mrs. Dannan's granddaughter, Mrs. H. Kendall, and her infant child to their home in Fresno following a visit in Berkeley. Horace Gardner is associated in Y. M. C. A. work. All live at the Bay View residence.

'FLEET GREAT,' IS MAJOR'S VERDICT

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—Enthusiastic at having witnessed the arrival of the big new Pacific Fleet, which will shortly be entertained in the bay region, Major O. S. Johnson, Berkeley's official representative at San Diego's welcome to Uncle Sam's fighting armada, returned yesterday from the south declaring the aggregation of warships to be wonderful.

Major Johnson had every opportunity to see the fleet at close range, he stated, and he was greatly impressed with the splendid showing made by the big battleships, the destroyers, the super-dreadnaughts and all the other ships of the fleet, whose officers and men will be the guests of the bay cities on September 4.

In company with Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Governor Stephens of California, the governors of Arizona and New Mexico and some of the officers of the fleet, Major Johnson visited the different ships and was able to get a close-up impression of Uncle Sam's big Pacific battleships.

"We left San Diego on board the 'Chauncey,'" said Johnson, "and after breakfast was served we visited the different battleships at anchor in the harbor and those in the roadstead."

"Though the super-dreadnaughts remained outside the harbor, the other ships entered the harbor and the noise of the saluting guns, the steam whistles and the general uproar made by the citizens of that city to show their joy on this occasion made an impression I shall never forget."

"All the officers and men with whom I talked said that they looked forward to their visit to San Francisco and the Eastbay cities. They were pleased to learn that Berkeley was making extensive preparations to entertain them."

"One of the finest sights I ever saw was the review of the ships, which was held upon the wide expanse of the ocean at San Diego. As the different super-dreadnaughts, battleships, destroyer cruisers and other ships steamed by in a majestic array I could not help but think that Uncle Sam had at last a worthy fleet to guard the great Western ocean fronting his Pacific shores."

Stating that the citizens of San Diego did everything possible to make the visitors feel at home and that a splendid banquet followed by a dance was tendered the officers of the fleet at the Hotel Del Coronado, Major Johnson said:

"The people of San Francisco and the bay cities will have an opportunity for entertaining one of the finest fleets that ever sailed any sea and as splendid a body of officers and men as ever gathered on an occasion like this."

Major Johnson said that approximately 20,000 men would make up the personnel of the fleet upon its arrival in San Francisco Bay.

Berkeley and the Eastbay cities are going ahead with their reception plans and already the work of the various committees in charge of the different phases of the work is well under way.

Mayor Louis Bartlett is taking a keen interest in the various plans provided for Berkeley's share of the fleet entertainment and is working hard to get Fleet Day, September 4, one of the biggest days in Berkeley's history.

BERKELEY HOME ROBBED

BERKELEY, Aug. 19.—That a burglar entered the residence of Harry R. Rathbone, 53 Parkside drive, yesterday afternoon and stole jewelry amounting to $398.25 was reported this morning by his daughter, Miss A. T. Rathbone. Entrance was gained through the rear door. The house was completely ransacked. No trace of the intruder has been obtained.

STANDARD COLLECTOR ROBBED

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 19.—Police today are scouring the city for three auto bandits who late yesterday afternoon held up William Baldwin, 27-year-old collector for the Standard Oil company, and robbed him of a leather bag containing $2000 cash.

KNABE SOLOELLE

De Luxe

$1500

(Other Soloelles $650 up)

The Soloelle is like no other player piano—it brings to you—to any one—the ability to produce—to create real, true, inspiring music.

The Soloelle is found in the homes of lovers of music, of famous singers and musicians, of people of discriminating taste and those who purchase the best.

The Soloelle will give you musical pleasure that no other player piano can even begin to equal.

There Are Two Reasons:

First

The Soloelle is the only player piano that affords complete and unrestricted control of the Melody and Accompaniment separately.

Second

The Soloelle is the only player piano that affords control of tone-color—the kind, quality or character of tone as distinguished from the quantity of tone (tone gradation).

Kidnaper, in Night Visit, Gets Wrong Child; 5-Year-Old Boy Is Deserted

LITTLE HERO RETURNED TO RELIEF HOME

DONALD PAPE, five years old, whom his father declared he would gain possession of (left) and SELWYN THOMAS, five years old, who occupied Donald's cot at the Ladies' Relief Society, and who was kidnaped on Sunday night, being returned later by the police.

Selwyn Thomas, 5 years old, is back again at the Ladies' Relief Home, the hero of a strange adventure of kidnapping in the dead of night, of being abandoned on a street corner by a strange man and a rescue by the police Sunday at midnight. Donald Pape, the supposed victim, has set up a "strange" friendship with the small lad who evidently was mistaken for him, according to the officials of the home. Selwyn Thomas, who was brought to the Ladies' Relief Society on Sunday by his mother, was put into the bed occupied by Donald Pape, who joined the big household about three months ago, and Donald moved elsewhere in the dormitory. The little chaps are identical in appearance and might easily be passed for twins, so closely does their coloring, their build and height resemble each other.

"I did not like it," is all the comment young Thomas makes upon his midnight adventure. The father of Donald Pape on Sunday afternoon visited the home and declared that he intended to gain possession of his child. He was familiar with the dormitory, with the placing of Donald's bed and had been there frequently to assist the youngster in dressing and undressing. The declaration is taken as partial evidence that it was the little child who was the intended victim in the kidnapping plot. The eventual change in cots and the similarity between the 5-year-old boys was the factor which defeated the carrying out. The parents of both children had been divorced.

ACCESS TO BUILDING EASY. The spacious quarters in which the children are housed were built many years ago and access to the building was easy to one who had become familiar with the corridors and windows. A careful watch is being kept by matrons and attendants against any further attempt to take away one of the children. The new little inmate was missed Sunday night about 8 o'clock. He was returned to the home at midnight by the police. Too young to dress himself, the youngster was properly garbed even to the tying of his necktie and lacing of his shoes, breaking down the theory that the little fellow had become homesick and wandered out in search of his mother.

The kidnaper entered in the dark, probably by a fire escape, partly dressed the child without turning on the light, wrapped him in a blanket, and hurried him to a waiting taxi-cab.

Mrs. Frances Powell, matron, says that she heard a taxi-cab circling the building the night before last.

FOUND ON STREET. The child was found by Ray Gotchel and Oliver Mack, at Forty-eighth street and Telegraph avenue, and taken to the Northern Police Station, whence he was returned to the home.

A second attempt was made to enter the home, it is said by attendants, after the absence of the Thomas child had been noted.

Victory Chorus to Resume Rehearsals. After a short vacation recess, the Victory chorus will resume rehearsals this evening in the club rooms of the Girls' Division, War Camp Community Service, 1444 San Pablo avenue, in preparation for the fleet entertainment. All old members and all new members are requested to be on hand at 8 o'clock.

stranger appearing at the place but retreating when he discovered that the officials of the place were on guard. The child says that the man who kidnaped him did not speak to him; that when they reached a lighted corner the man looked at him carefully, then took him to a lawn, left him, and drove away. Mothers of both children have been notified of the attempt and the police have been asked to keep a watch over the home in future.

RESULTS TELL STORY. "We should not count our successes in numbers, however, but in our accomplishments. The greatness of the university depends upon how far it can extend its work. To include some three or forty thousand students in our enrollment would be talking in too big numbers, but that is the number we are now reaching in all parts of the state."

With an influx of students never before recorded in campus history, difficulty is being encountered by college officials in providing rooms large enough to hold the classes. Instruction in regular work began this morning with dozens of students forced to stand in many of the buildings. The inconvenience, it is expected, will be met by holding temporary outdoor classes until accommodation can be provided for the new students.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA IN FIRST PLACE

With Enrollment of 7862
Students the Institution Becomes the Largest of Its Kind in the United States

The University of California today took its place as the largest institution of its kind in the United States.

With registration at 6 o'clock last night totaling 7862 and with hundreds of students expected to arrive before the end of the semester, California's state university has leaped in registration over Columbia University, New York, heretofore the biggest collegiate institution in the United States.

This was the declaration today of James K. Fisk, assistant recorder of the facilities at the University of California.

Unless Columbia shows phenomenal growth when it opens shortly for the fall semester California can claim place to first honors among the institutions of learning in this country, says Fisk.

Coupled to the regular attendance at the state university, which is expected to reach the 9000 mark by the end of the college semester, is an enrollment of more than 4000 students at the twentieth annual summer session which has just been concluded.

1919 STUDENTS REGISTER. For many years California has held second place to Columbia, which, through its teachers' college, has attracted hundreds of students from all parts of the nation.

According to figures which Assistant Recorder Fisk compiled this morning a total of 7862 students have registered this far on the campus, compared to 7114 for the corresponding period last year. This number includes 3445 new students as against 2389 in 1918.

Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president emeritus of the university and now professor of comparative philology on the campus, declared that California's growth in its state university this year will probably not be reached by other institutions in the country.

"California and Columbia, both situated on great harbors and bordering great cities, have always led the universities of the country," he said. "At the present time California undoubtedly leads Columbia, but whether the latter university will show phenomenal growth also remains to be seen when it opens its doors."

RESULTS TELL STORY. "We should not count our successes in numbers, however, but in our accomplishments. The greatness of the university depends upon how far it can extend its work. To include some three or forty thousand students in our enrollment would be talking in too big numbers, but that is the number we are now reaching in all parts of the state."

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The condition of District Attorney Chas. M. Fickert, who is ill at Adler's sanatorium, was serious this morning, following a relapse last evening. Considerable improvement was evidenced yesterday following the transfusion of blood from the veins of former chief deputy district attorney, James J. Brennan, Sunday, but Fickert grew steadily weaker during the night.

Dr. Alston Weeks said this morning that he expected his patient to recover.

Late Peach Crop Harvest to Begin Within Two Weeks

Picking of plums, Bartlett pears, apricots and early peaches will soon be over for the season, according to local wholesale commission merchants. Harvesting of the late peach crop will be in full swing within the next two weeks.

Cantaloupes and other melons are plentiful and will be in the market for some time. The melon crop is reported to be large and all varieties of melons are ripening nicely. River growers are sending some very fine nutmegs into the market and prices are ruling much lower than a few weeks ago.

Reports from the apple belts of the state are to the effect that the crop will be much heavier this year than it was last. Early apples are becoming plentiful in the market. The late varieties, which include Newtown pippins and Bellefleurs, promise heavy yields, according to latest estimates, and representatives of European firms are looking into the situation for the purpose of buying large quantities of Newtowns for overseas shipment.

U. of C. Educator to Lecture on League

Professor Charles Mills Gayley, of the University of California, will address a mass meeting at the First Presbyterian church Thursday, at 8 p.

Professor Gayley will speak on the League of Nations and this will be the first of a series of meetings for the purpose of enlightening the public on this vital issue now before the United States Senate for ratification. ## THREE DARING GEM BANDITS ARE CAPTURED

Men Positively Identified as Robbers Who Took $40,000
Worth of Jewelry in S. F.;
Implicated in Other Raids

Positively identified as the perpetrators of the Morgan Jewelry Company holdup, in which diamonds valued at $40,000 were taken by three armed men in a daylight raid in the company's store, 885 Market street, August 8, Antonio Paganini, John Haves and Richard Johnson, and John Richards were arrested early this morning. They are believed by Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson to be the remainder of the gang who blew the vault in the Bank of Art and Commerce, escaping with $12,000 in life bonds and cash, and also to be involved in a similar crime at Alameda, Cal., where $10,000 was taken a year ago. Paganini, who is believed to be the leader of the band, is a well-known pickpocket. He was arrested last night as he was about to leave the state, a trunk being found at a Morgon hotel was found by John Haves and John Richards, who made the arrest.

An address on Ninth street was the place which led to an early morning raid on the Hung Fat Lo Chinese restaurant on Grant avenue, where Haves and Richards, with two women, Harriet Moore and Anna Buff, were found, the quartet being taken into custody.

At the morning "show up" before Captain Matheson and the headquarters men the three were identified by Max Morgan's clerk. It was then found that their description answers that of the men wanted for the Artesia job, as well as that at Middletown.

The women companions of Haves and Richards are being held on suspicion of carrying the baggage fixed at $1000 pending an investigation. Johnson and Richards had $1500 in currency when arrested. Less than $1000 worth of the Morgan jewelry was recovered.

DEER HUNTERS' COTS SUDDENLY BEGIN TO MOVE

SAN JOSE, Aug. 19.—Several deer hunters sleeping on cots had a rough experience on the Mt. Hamilton range a couple of days ago. Some time during the early morning hours the cots started moving and before their occupants abandoned them they were gathering momentum at an alarming rate.

As the hunters dived for terra firma the cots disappeared around a bend in a road behind a touring car driven by J. Guilbert, former city electrician for San Jose. He had connected them all with a tow rope, while his comrades slept and then tied the other end to his machine. The victims of the joke were T. Fisher, M. E. Griffith, V. Humburg, William Austin and Charles Hietzell.

USE DERRICK TO STEAL CAR

Automobile thieves using a derrick and wreck truck last night stole an automobile belonging to E. V. Summers, of Oakland, from a ditch near Mission San Jose, where it had been wrecked. Summers had been on an outing when the machine went over the grade. The party went to San Jose and obtained the services of garage men. In the meantime the thieves, using heavy timbers and chains, hauled the machine to the road and made away with it.

GOSSIP FROM THE JUNGLES

Steengraf Pitches Halton-Didiers to Win Over Zerolene

The Halton-Didiers of Alameda made it two straight wins in as many games in the Saturday Industrial league by defeating the Standard Zerolene in twelve innings by a score of 5 to 0. Steengraf pitched a strong game for the Alameda club and with a little more coaching by Halton-Didiers he should develop into a very classy hurler. Starasich and Ross, who were forced to retire from the game after being hit by a batted ball, did some good fielding. The score:

Neptune Girls Hostesses at Mermaids Ball

Ruth Crane, Mabel Green, Eva Fallow and Eva Sewell will be the hostesses at the Mermaids Ball at Neptune Beach Thursday night. The Alameda girl swimming colony has come to the rescue of the Neptune Swimming Club in the matter of raising funds wherewith to send a team of six swimmers to the Pacific Coast Swimming Championships at Vent City, Coronado, August 31, and the Neptune's dancing occasion is the result.

The dance will be held in the Neptune hall and a program of dry land aquatic stunts is a card. These include a fifty-yard swimming race across the hall by mermaids, a bathing suit relay and other indoor sports of like kind.

Captain George Lincer hopes to make the event a real success for all the swimming folks and fans, and to have a sort of dance convention for the folks who have put over the swimming game this season. All the notables will be on hand. The Oakland Athletic Club will be making the affair successful, and will be on hand with their swimming celebrities.

Among those who will "hit the mallet" at Neptune Thursday evening are: Mabel Green, Mrs. Fallow, Desch, Helen, Martin, Mrs. Hersey, Margaret, Foley, Ruth Crane, Eva Fallow, Mabel Green, Mabel Green, Helen Martin and Lillian Hersey. George Lincer will have his champions on hand, including the star water polo team from Neptune. These will include Bart Coffin, the high diving champion; Ray Jorgensen, the P. A. 50-yard champion; Snook Norr, Norman Peters, Al Stoll, H. Mawdsley, Frankie Gay and Bobby Beck.

LARUE WILL BOX FOR BENEFIT OF SAILORS

"Bill" Larue, who defeated Willie Meehan last Wednesday evening will make his next public appearance in connection with the Oakland reception to the Fleet.

Larue, who is now in Los Angeles, wired Preston Higgins, the secretary of the committee, that he would put on an exhibition bout.

The Oakland Fleet people are planning the greatest athletic event of the fleet program. Arrangements are under way by which the champions of the Fleet will be matched against the champions of the local scene.

At least seven events will be staged. They will be held in the monster open air stadium at Idora Park and arrangements are being made to take care of 15,000 fans.

CALIFORNIA MAN SECURED BY ST. MARY'S

For the second time in history St. Mary's College, Oakland, has secured a football coach from the ranks of its most deadly rival--California.

Brother Lewis, who besides being prefect of studies is promoting the football team, today announced that the college had secured Lester H. Nuland, a University of California man, to coach the junior football team.

Nuland was a lieutenant in the army. He was assigned to duty with the Students' Army Training Corps at St. Mary's. The students liked the Irish boy, and Nuland liked St. Mary's. The rest was easy.

Nuland has his L.L.B. from California, but he is a little too young to take the bar examination. So for a year he will line up the stuff that keeps the first team fighting.

Pete Smith, the coach of a year ago, was first man on desert. He was a solid standard for the Red and Blue.

Byron Houck, who is in the box for the first and will work hard for the first five innings, for up until the sixth the Purple Sox were leading 1 to 0. His teammates putting over four runs in the sixth. The big inning for the Tigers was in the ninth, when they scored seven runs.

Paul Pittery hurried for the Reds and allowed six hits, the two runs being made by the Reds in the seventh inning after the Angels had a 1-to-0 lead. Cliff Markle hurried for the Reds and was nipped for eleven hits.

The Angels made it five wins out of seven games with the Reds by taking the long end of the 4-to-2 score.

PASADENA MAN ELECTED CHIEF AT RICHMOND

RICHMOND, Aug. 18.—W. H. Woods, former police chief of Pasadena and recently employed at the oil works at Point Richmond, was elected chief of police of Richmond last night at the meeting of the city council following one of the longest drawn out campaigns ever held in this city.

Chief Woods comes from Pasadena and according to those who investigated his past record he left the city because of a charge in the city government and not over inefficient service of his department. Woods was chosen by the six members of the council for this city because of his excellent record in the past.

SOLDIER USES GAS MASK IN ENDING LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—W. H. Peck, a returned soldier stationed at the Presidio, adjusted his gas mask over his face, then ran a tube from the open gas jet underneath the mesh to his mouth and committed suicide yesterday in a room he had rented at 1247 Geary street.

Just before this he had sat down and written a fanciful note which started thus:

"I'm just tired, that is all. So tired I am going to try and get a little rest. I'm tired of eating, sleeping, getting up, washing and trying to pass the time. There is absolutely nothing I want and nothing I can complain of. There has never been any great disappointment befall me. I am perfectly healthy. I don't want money, fame or women or anything of interest to the majority of people and I have always just gone along with life like a piece of paper in a current of air."

Living house last Friday. The body was found yesterday after lodgers had smelled gas coming from the room. Inquiry showed that Peck was about 25 years of age. Young Peck was a chauffeur. He joined the French troops in 1914 and was transferred to the American forces in 1915.

THIRTY-SIX MEN BACK FROM WAR

Thirty-six men from Fort Oglethorpe reached the Oakland mole this afternoon, and upon their arrival were served with refreshments by the Red Cross canteen workers. They were on their way to the Presidio for demobilization.

Detachments to reach the mole tomorrow are: Sixteen men from Camp Crockett, 35 men from the Southern Pacific; 10 men from Camp Mills on the same train; 74 men from Jefferson barracks, also due on same train, but may be delayed; 31 men from Columbia barracks, due on the Western Pacific at 6:25 p. m.

NEW CELEBRATION DATE.
Plans for the state-wide welcome home celebration for soldiers, sailors and marines out of service have been changed for the fourth time. This change was announced yesterday, when Miss Esther Tujano, publicity manager of the state committee on readjustment, was advised that September 25, the day set for the celebration, will be Jewish New Year and a day of fasting among people of the Jewish faith.

Adjutant General J. J. Borree was consulted, and it was announced that the date would be changed and the new day given out as soon as Governor Stephens could be reached.

The state-wide homecoming celebration was set first for April and postponed because not all of the soldiers and sailors were back August 10 was then picked, and later September 9. The latter date was dropped because it is Admission day.

NEW SAILING DATES.
Cable dispatches received yesterday from the A. E. F. headquarters in France by the western department of the United States army, give sailing dates of transports homeward-bound as follows:

Transport Troy sailed from Brest August 10 for New York with the following troops: 13th field artillery (third division) supply company, and batteries A, B, C, D and E; 42 men of the Provisional machine gun battalion (third division) complete; 38th infantry (third division) supply and machine gun companies; 29th cavalry company; 80th motor transport company; 306th butchery company; 122d camp hospital; 50 general prisoners and 5 officer prisoners.

Transport Aqueduct sailed from Brest August 10 for New York with the following troops: 13th field artillery (third division) supply company, and batteries A, B, C, D and E; 42 men of the Provisional machine gun battalion (third division) complete; 38th infantry (third division) supply and machine gun companies; 29th cavalry company; 80th motor transport company; 306th butchery company; 122d camp hospital; 50 general prisoners and 5 officer prisoners.

LAND FLEET WILL ARRIVE SEPTEMBER 2

Completing its historic transcontinental trip over the Lincoln highway, Uncle Sam's mighty land fleet, the motor convoy of the Army Transport Corps, will reach Oakland Tuesday, September 2, three days behind schedule.

The convoy is the largest motor caravan of its kind ever assembled. And it is significant that on the day it arrives in Oakland; the terminus of the Lincoln highway; the Pacific fleet, Uncle Sam's great sea convoy, will drop anchor in San Francisco bay.

VILLI WELCOME CONVOY.
In recognition of the event Oakland and Eastbay citizens are planning a big welcome celebration in honor of the motor convoy, a fitting inaugural to the fleet week festivities.

Under the direction of the Civic Welcome Committee, headed by Jesse Robinson, plans for the celebration are well under way.

Co-operating with the Civic Welcome Committee are the War Camp Community Service, the Red Cross, the Defenders Club, the fraternal and social orders of the city, the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants Exchange and all Eastbay officials.

GALA STREET DRESS.
The streets will be in gay dress. Lake Merritt will be lighted with thousands of incandescent globes at night.

A parade of the motor caravan, open air luncheon in Lakeside Park by the Red Cross Canteen, freedom of Flora Park, Piedmont Baths and Lake Merritt, a turkey dinner at the Hotel Oakland, and dancing are features of the entertainment for officers and men of the convoy.

Then, too, there will be a sham battle between army bombing planes and the convoy's anti-air craft guns and a fireworks display.

Game From Preserve Wanders Into Town

MONROVIA, Aug. 19.—Owing to the protection afforded them from hunters by the creation of a game preserve in the Los Angeles National Forest, the boundary of which lies to the north of this city two miles, mountain quail, deer, squirrels and cottontails are becoming very numerous and exceedingly tame in that section.

A buck recently came through the city, grazing the shrubbery in the city park, which is almost in the center of the town. He did not leave until deer chased him away. Quail and cottontails are a common sight on the main streets and the trees are filled with gray squirrels.

Diamond Ring Found In Chicken's Claw

ZUNI, Va., Aug. 19.—White chickens henceforth will be an emblem of good luck in the family of Dr. W. F. Richardson of Leeswood, four-leaved clovers and such things may be lucky, but—

Mrs. Richardson recently lost the diamond ring given her by the doctor during their engagement. It was not only a valuable gem, but treasured as a keepsake. Advertisements were of no avail and after a hard search the ring was given up as lost.

Recently Mrs. Richardson killed the only white chicken out of her flock of 40 and in the claw was found the long lost diamond ring.

FACTORIES ARE PUSHED HARD TO MEET DEMANDS

Oakland manufacturers are at least six months behind in filling orders, so great is the demand for local supplies, according to Bishop & Bahler, traffic experts. Factories in this city are reported to be operating to capacity in an effort to meet the demand.

Ship space has been secured for the shipment from this city within the next two weeks of $100,000 worth of agricultural implements, which will go to Havana, Cuba, Alexandria, Egypt, and to Japan, according to Bishop & Bahler.

Foreign exports from the continental side of the bay have greatly increased since the first of the year, the members of the firm say, and it is expected that the value of goods shipped from this industrial district during the year will be far larger than ever before.

THIEF GETS $15.
Leaving his pants draped over the back of a chair beside an open window proved costly to R. C. Grady, according to his report to the Oakland police today. A thief reached through the window and took $15.

TWO WOMEN RUN DOWN BY AUTO

Struck by an automobile, and dragged more than sixty feet before the machine was brought to a stop, Mrs. Magdalene Wilson, 1646 East Fourteenth street, is suffering from painful injuries, and a companion, Mrs. Esther Bahlgren, thrown to the pavement by the crash, is confined to her home with a broken leg, the result of an accident late last night.

The two women were run down at the corner of East Twelfth street and Sixth avenue by an automobile driven by C. E. Morrill of 2999 East Twelfth street.

The two women had started to cross the street, in the dark, when the machine suddenly bore down on them. After the accident they were removed to the emergency hospital, and later taken to their home.

SHORT SKIRTS DISCARDED IN S.F. FASHIONS

American conservatism has won over French conservatism in dress and the city women will not have to wear full skirts, but rather, four inches above the pavement.

This victory has been won for femininity here not without an Argentine battle within the confines of the Ladies' Tailor Association, which met for the fray in San Francisco.

There was a faction who wished to abide by the Parisian decree of high, very high skirts. There was also a faction holding to American principles of caution. The latter soldiers of the scissors and needle wanted a full skirt which waved to the gentle Western breeze not more than eight inches above the city pavements.

Great was the battle. Home they brought their warriors wounded and sorely spent—but after the victory had been won for lengthy garments. The men who wanted high skirts and a bewitching show of silk embroidered hosiery lost—went down to defeat such as shook the Western world.

Full skirts, thus, will measure eight inches above the shoe soles. Gauding are the teeth today among mere men, who know not the finer arts of tailoring but who do know shapely shapes when they see them. At the same meeting was sounded the doom, also the knell of the slit skirt. It isn't to be worn for the fall. It should never have been worn, say the conservative faction. Skirts are to be shorter and tighter, though, than in former seasons—so say the French upholders, who point to these two facts as elements of part victory.

H. Kramer, treasurer of the organization which fought it out along the Palace Hotel line if it took all summer—although it really only took about three hours—says that the bay region may soon become America's fashion center. Women here, he said, are most independent of Parisian decrees and wear whatever they please in the most fascinating manner. Which is a compliment to our Western women, though a back-handed slap at Parisian supremacy in dress matters. Kramer, worried from the conflict, quenched his burning fever at a nearby soda fountain, and then went home planning for the women of the bay cities a style which shall show extreme independence of France and all styles foreign.

Funeral of Pioneer Alameda Banker Held

The funeral of William T. Vetch, pioneer of Alameda county, was held yesterday afternoon from his late home in Walsworth avenue. His death followed an illness of more than a year. J. P. Carlson, Charles Sumner, John McNeill, Harry Nott, John Horstman and Samuel Taylor served as pall bearers. Vetch is survived by a son, Lloyd Vetch and a brother, H. M. Vetch.

He was a director of the Central National Bank and appraiser of the savings department of that institution. A native of New York, he was 62 years of age.

Y.W.C.A. Rowers Enjoy 'Weenie' Roast

A "weenie" roast on the shores of Lake Merritt was the pleasure enjoyed last night by the rowing crew of the Y. W. C. A. The young women met at 7:30 p. m. and rowed across the lake and partook of their hot supper near the canoe house. Those who participated were: Miss Marion Blair, physical director; Miss Margaret Skinner, Miss Mary Nott, Mrs. A. C. Duffin, Miss Rees Skinner, Mrs. Ola D. Allen, Miss E. Carroll, Miss Sarah Nott, Miss Helen Hopkins.

"Shorter and tighter," is ruling of bay cities tailors. Skirts will stop eight inches from the ground. Here is the way it looks.

DECLARE CITY SQUATTER ON WHARF LAND

Because, under the law, the city has been "squatter" on the land at the foot of Clay street occupied by the B-Line Transportation Company shed, for which the city has been collecting rent, the city of Oakland may face further legal complications as the result of the long-fought Merritt Hospital cases.

This has developed with the report to the city council from the harbor engineer's office that the old wharf there is rotting on its piling and must be condemned. Commissioner W. H. Edwards proposed that the city repurchase it, and this led to the discovery that under the law the city does not own the property and therefore cannot make improvements.

City Harbor Engineer C. H. Heck has prepared proceedings in the meantime to condemn the wharf. "We have found," said Commissioner W. J. Baccus, "that as a matter of fact the city occupies the land much in the light of a squatter. I am afraid that it may mean that claims will be filed against the money we have collected for rent on this property."

The discovery may hamper extensive plans that had been outlined for improvement of the waterfront property at the foot of Clay street. The plan was to construct a new shed for the transportation company, which is one of the most profitable of the city's waterfront tenants. The Merritt decision, establishing the tide line of 1850 as the property line to the waterfront of which the city holds claim, may mean that the shed must be erected on private property, which would mean abandonment of claims by the city. City Attorney H. L. Hagan is now looking into the varied legal angles involved.

BANDITS TAKEN FOR ROBBERIES

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 19.—General Arnulfo Gomez, commander of the federal forces at Tampico, today indignantly denied the reports of foreign oil companies regarding the danger of attack if Mexican escorts were provided. He declared there was no truth in the charges that Carranza's troops were unreliable. The party of bandits held responsible for the attacks and robbery recently committed on four launches of prominent petroleum companies, and also suspected of being guilty of robbing the launch from the American cruiser Cheyenne were captured near Tampico Sunday. One of them has confessed he has participated in both attacks. The fate of the assailants of George McDonald also was captured. McDonald was reported killed, but he arrived at Tampico safely. The bandits have been promised a quick trial.

Labor, Capital Both Profiteer: Vanderlip

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 19.—Causes of the high cost of living are more complicated than the average person realizes, said Frank Vanderlip, New York financier, here today. Some of the causes, he said, are the tendency of both labor and capital to profiteer, the reduction in production and Europe's big purchases.

Vanderlip, accompanied by Mrs. Vanderlip and four of their six children, arrived in Seattle yesterday on a vacation trip.

Jingle Jolts

By Harvey E. Westgate.

I know where I can buy more beer than forty men can drink. I know where they will serve me suds without a knowing wink. I know where I can get the stuff that's got the proper twang, and those who serve it tell the cops that they can all go hang.

I know where drivers unload barrels right in the light of day, and drink a stein or two themselves before they drive away. I know where glasses tink and clink, and sleuths never cast a frown, where you can drink, and drink, and drink until you drown.

And barmaids serve the stuff up, too, at only five a glass, and every maid's a pretty maid, a winsome, modest lass; but still I cannot have a drink, c'en though I have the kale, for it is up Vancouver way where lager beer's for sale.

JAPANESE MAID CHARGED WITH THEFT REBELS

The breaking of a mirror over the head of Hatsu Ebasawa, young Japanese domestic girl, by a rich Yuki Nagashima, wife of a rich Berkeley Japanese, threatens to bring seven years of bad luck to the Nagashima household. The girl has sued Mrs. Nagashima and her husband for $25,000 damages, and in her complaint alleges that besides having a mirror broken over her head the domestic was the recipient of daily kicks and cuffs over a period of two years, while she was employed in the defendants' home.

The girl alleges that in addition to the beatings she was subjected to accusations of dishonesty, and that she was forced to sign an acknowledgment that she had stolen money from her employers. She says the pen was given her and her hand guided in making the signature. The complaint recites the language in which the accusations of dishonesty were made, with its interpretation as follows:

Hatsu wa dorobo desu.
(Hatsu is a thief.)
Hatsu wa okane wo nusumimashita.
(Hatsu stole money.)
Hatsu wa okane wo nusundo darekani akite masita.
(Hatsu stole money and placed it in the safe of a boy.)
Sanbikagojio dora nusumimashita.
(Took $200.)
Diamond yubiva wo nusumimashita.
(Stole a diamond ring.)

(Stole a watch.)

L. A. Car Strikers Scoff at Injunction

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—Action of Judge Evers in issuing a temporary restraining order will have little effect in the fight for increased pay and collective bargaining, union leaders in the street car strike here declared today. The complaint filed by attorneys of the Los Angeles Railway company alleges the strikers have trespassed on the cars, threatened bona fide employees, pulled off trolleys, interfered with the men who are operating the cars and with the business of the company and with picketing. Resumption of regular interurban service is expected today, following the report that the Pacific Electric company has imported 200 motor-men and conductors from the north. There was no service on either line last night.

Wilson Is Invited to Speak Here Labor Day

W. A. Spooner, of the Central Labor Council and the Building Trades Council yesterday sent an invitation to President Wilson to deliver his annual Labor Day message at the Labor day celebration at the Eastbay men to be held at Alameda Park.

As far as known this is the first invitation of its kind to be extended to the president and the local labor people are optimistic about his acceptance.

High School Pupils Asked to Register

New pupils entering the Oakland high schools, Twelfth and Jefferson streets, are requested by the principal to register at the school building Thursday and Friday between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. New pupils may also register on Monday, August 25, between 1 and 4 p. m.

Charity Cost Shows Gain of $237,476

Administration of the Alameda county's charities and corrections cost the taxpayers $748,845.53 cents during the past year, a gain of $237,476.59 over the twelve months preceding.

The cost of maintaining hospitals, sanitariums, facilities for insane patients, jails, detention homes, the burial of old soldiers and indigents has increased nearly 15 per cent and the estimated amount of increase for the present year will keep pace with that of the past year, to which must be added the capital expenditure on account of the building of the new county hospital amounting to $300,000, according to a statement compiled by County Auditor E. P. Garrison and made public Monday.

INFLATIONARY INCREASE

The greatest increase which is recorded is at the county infirmary where a total of $28,321.69 has been expended, or $28,141.89 more than last year. Arroyo Sanatorium at Livermore has increased its expenses during the past year by $22,311.63, totaling $116,750.26 for maintenance. From this sum however, must be deducted $7,087.95 allowed by the state of California. The Society of Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is the only body receiving county aid which did not increase its budget of $1800. The Baby Hospital received $358.42 less than in 1918, the only organization reducing its appropriation.

Detention, examination and maintenance of the insane cost Alameda county $6,351.20 or an increase of $599.81. Medicine, surgical supplies, drugs, treatment, nurses and physicians at the Receiving Hospital went from $8,109.15 in 1918 to $9,342.74 in 1919. Household and laundry expenses increased $144.17, while salaries advanced $213.32. Outside care and burial of indigents increased from $761.15 to $823.30 in every district.

JAIL MAINTENANCE

The maintenance of the county jail including salaries, meals for prisoners and other expenses cost the taxpayers $32,050.97 or $2595.12 above 1918. The cost of maintaining outside jails went from $18.50 to $28.21. It cost the taxpayers $38,492.52 to keep up the juvenile home. The expenses in 1918 were $16,582.92. The care of delinquent minors in various state institutions amounted to $54,599.52, or an increase of $2,903.39.

For maintaining feeble-minded in institutions Alameda county appropriated $17,558, offering the slight increase of $538.56 over the previous year. Care of orphans and half orphans went from $68,266 to $88,414.96. The following sums were expended in other charitable and corrective work last year: dental clinic, $7,050.21, increase, $382.74; Associated Charities, investigation,

1,000,000 to Welcome Sailor Boys Decoration Plans Are Completed Pacific Fleet Is Short of Men

More than 1,000,000 persons are expected to welcome the Pacific squadron when it enters the Golden Gate next month. Hundreds of communications are received daily at committee headquarters from out of town residents asking directions to the best locations and elevations from which to survey the historical event. Committees are working upon all possible plans for the housing of the great numbers who will come by motor and train from all parts of California.

The 75,000 poppies and the 10,000 butterflies which will float down on the great parade on War Women's Day as it passes under the huge bell to be hung at Market and Fourth streets, giving one of the spectacular and typical features of the spectacular event, have been completed. Storehouses are being filled with thousands of flags, women's emblems, streamers and hats which are to be used in the rating San Francisco streets. A few days previous to the fleet's arrival workers will be mobilized to put into place the elaborate scheme of decorations according to the plans of the artists. Already the framework for the flowers and greens is being set along the line of march.

JAPANESE DISPLAY

The Japanese association has offered a unique display of day and night fireworks to be used during fleet week. The association will also look out after the entertainment of the Japanese about the ships at the Japanese Y. M. C. A. in San Francisco.

The list of patronesses for the Ball of the Allies which will be given in the Civic auditorium across the bay, contributing a most colorful function to the social history of California, will be announced by the ball committee.

Presence of Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Mrs. Daniels, Admiral Rodman and six other admirals, together with men distinguished in naval and military affairs in a large erected under the organ will accord distinction to the brilliant event. Edward Greenway, one of the best known cotton leaders in the state, is assisting Arthur McLean, chairman, in perfecting the details for the elaborate ball.

The welfare work of fleet week is being organized under Miss Elizabeth Sherman and Miss Edith Sluck, representing the National League for Women's Service.

FLEET SHORT OF MEN

At present, according to a statement of Admiral Rodman, the personnel of the fleet in San Pedro consists of 14,000 officers and men. When finally assembled it will comprise 48,000 officers and men. Thirty-three thousand officers and men are now attached. In view of the shortage of men, Admiral Rodman declares that some of the ships will be manned by reservists.

will be placed in "reduced commission," with only enough of crew to load and care for them. Since the fleet has arrived in Pacific waters many of the men have returned to civil life, having enlisted only for the period of the war. The discharges are responsible for the shortage. Within ninety days Admiral Rodman expects the entire Pacific fleet including the vessels here and on the way from the eastern coast, to assemble at Puget Sound. The present program calls for volunteer maneuvers including target practice for a part of the fleet in southern waters.

The big barbecue at which Santa Cruz intends to entertain the men of the armada will be given on Wednesday, August 27, by the Ben Leonard farm bureau. Daily dances in the big tree groves are programmed. The Southern Pacific has received 10,000 additional tickets for trips to the big trees during the time the men of the fleet are there.

Y. W. C. A. OPEN HOUSE

The Young Women's Christian Association today notified the Fleet and Presidential Reception Committee that they will maintain "open house" for the men of the fleet and their relatives and friends for the entire time the fleet is in the bay.

An extensive program has been prepared for the four days, commencing Tuesday, which includes open house and an informal party for the enlisted men on Tuesday evening, a party for the officers Wednesday evening and a popularity party for all enlisted men Thursday evening. Friday evening will be given over to a dance. The organization has also made arrangements for an information booth which deals relative to hotels and lodging houses may be secured.

A. Edw. Rainey, executive secretary of the San Francisco committee, this morning notified the Oakland committee that the fleet which will arrive in San Francisco bay September 2, under command of Admiral Hugh Rodman, will comprise forty-one vessels with a personnel of 15,000 officers and 12,000 enlisted men.

Subscriptions are pouring in for the funds for the entertainment of the guests from all sources. The Eastbay Water company headed the list today with a donation of $200. Many other large subscriptions were received.

SALE OF BUTTONS

The sale of buttons in the theaters and moving picture houses is continuing; thousands of buttons being disposed of in the theaters and moving picture houses last night.

Rev. Chas. S. Price, one of the Four Minute Men, will make a plea in behalf of the Finance Committee at the fight in the Municipal auditorium tomorrow night, and a squad of twenty-five girls will sell the buttons to the audience.

The following is a list of subscriptions received yesterday: Eastbay Water Co., $200; Reudiger, Loesch & Zins, $15; Smith Bros., $10; Merchants' Express, $10; Lexington's Cafe, $10; California Cafe, $10; Western Heavy Hardware, $10; Del

SNAG HIT IN FOOD SEIZURES; RULING ASKED

No further action will be taken by the Department of Justice in the condemnation libel of foodstuffs alleged to be hoarded or otherwise held in violation of the food control act until Attorney General Palmer passes upon an issue raised as to whether agricultural associations and their holdings are exempted within the meaning of the act.

This is the statement issued by United States Attorney Annette A. Adams when it developed that Section 6 of the Food Control Act, exempted in its provision ranchers, farmers or others who were holding their own food products they had grown.

"Practically all of the food staples in California are controlled by associations of growers. This applies to dairy products, beans, grain, fruits," Mrs. Adams said. "In one instance we have found an association was storing in this city in apparent violation of the law, a quantity of certain food huge enough to supply the entire state and its millions of people for days. If these associations are exempted from the meaning of the act, the Department of Justice will be practically helpless, but I have asked Attorney General Palmer to rule upon it. If he takes the same position that I have taken, these associations are free to store by condemnation and liable of food stuffs, warehoused in their name, will be seized forthwith. Criminal prosecution will follow later in that event. Our first step will be to stop this wholesale hoarding. I expect the ruling from the attorney general tomorrow morning."

Hospital Holds Body For Debt; Man Jailed

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—M. E. Hammond, bookkeeper for a local hospital, is under arrest because he refused to deliver the body of Mrs. Bessie Schwartz, who died at the institution, until a bill for hospital services was paid. The dead woman's husband swore to the complaint.

DEIRO

To Play at T. & D.

Last Time

Today and tonight, Deiro, recognized peer of the world's greatest accordionists, plays for the last time. Deiro could fill an indefinite engagement at the T. & D. Theater if the applause which greets his every appearance can be taken as indicative, but he is compelled to leave for New York tomorrow to fill an engagement in the John Cort production, "Just a Minute."

Today's program also features the Allied Victory Pageant, Constance Talmadge in "The Veiled Adventure" and Harry Morey in "Beauty Proof."
